BRITISH REFUSE TO GET EXCITED

London Fails to See Menace in Hindenburg's Election

New President Regarded as Honest and Fair in Views

Lloyd George Says France is to Blame for Results

BY JOHN STEELE

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

LONDON, April 27.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's success at the polls in Germany yesterday, when he was elected President, was rather overshadowed in the British press today by the opening of Parliament tomorrow and the introduction of a budget which, by reduction of taxation, may have a far-reaching effect on British prosperity, but so far as British opinion is concerned it is on the whole not displeased.

Gen. Von Hindenburg, to the ordinary Briton, means the tradition of a fair and hard fighter who took and gave hard blows and bore no malice. The Briton also has little use for one whose eyes are only on a public career and he is inclined to admire the way Gen. Von Hindenburg has behaved since the armistice.

The British diplomat, while naturally discreet in their expressions of feeling, are of the same opinion. As far as Germany herself is concerned, they look for no change either in internal or foreign policy from the election of the old war leader as the President of the republic.

MAN OF HIS WORD

It is pointed out that Gen. Von Hindenburg is a soldier, a man of his word and an honest man who will carry out the oath he must take to support the republic, and no coup d'état to restore the monarchy is feared. The diplomats expect the German government to carry out the Dawes plan faithfully, and they recall the fact that a "right-wing" government proposed giving power to the party and, therefore, they see no reason why the government under Gen. Von Hindenburg should not be just the same.

On the other hand, the British fear the effect of the election on French public opinion and they expect the impact of the peace conference in Europe will be made much more difficult.

Former Prime Minister Lloyd George, who arrived today in London from a holiday, declared he did not think that Gen. Von Hindenburg would do anything rash, but he would do anything rash.

BLAMES FRANCE

Mr. Lloyd George is quoted as saying:

"I think France has driven Germany into this mood, which is extraordinarily stupid. I do not think Hindenburg will do anything rash. On the whole he is a steady old man and I do not think he has the temperament to do rash things. His election is an indication of the state of mind which has arisen in Germany and is the result of the Poincaré, or Nationalist, policy which was repudiated at the last election by a majority of the electorate of France."

Parallels are drawn in the London press between the German election and the case of Marshal MacMahon in France after the War of 1870 and that of Gen. Grant after the Civil War. These allusions are in the liberal papers which complain of the Allies' repressive policy toward Germany as having driven the German people to make this manifestation of their resentment over the discouragement of their genuine overtures for reconciliation and appeasement.

The financial lever—Germany's need of foreign loans from the United States or Europe for future development and reconstruction—is, in the end, believed to be the world's safeguard against any adventurous policy on the part of German leaders and statesmen.

FRANCE WILL NOT PROTEST ON ELECTION

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

PARIS, April 27.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's election to the Presidency of Germany was no surprise to the French. Persons in official circles and most of the newspapers, while hoping that Germany would remain a republic, realized that the general's popularity would bring him to the helm of the republic.

The same sort of thing happened in France after the War of 1871, when the Republican President, Louis Adolphe Thiers, was defeated by the reactionary, Marshal MacMahon.

The Quai announced tonight that France has no intention of protesting the election of Von Hindenburg. The announcement followed a rumor that a French protest was being drawn up and pointing out that Von Hindenburg was on the list of "war criminals."

The report apparently was caused by a French official statement earlier in the day regarding the former war lord's status.

WAR CRIMINAL LIST

It was said at Quai d'Orsay that the German President's name was number 237 on the list of "war criminals," and that he was charged with deportation of French citizens, pillaging, destruction, burning of property and carrying off women and girls. These were but the major crimes charged against him.

French military men seem to welcome the election of Von Hindenburg. They say that "this will open his eyes to British and American who do not believe as we do," and told them that the new German spirit was the same as that before and during the World War.

The election of Von Hindenburg proves it.

Although the election of the field marshal was expected, the authorities of the Foreign Office are much disturbed by it. The old question of a guarantee pact now takes on an entirely new aspect and the prospect of concluding a treaty with Germany safeguarding Poland's frontiers is more remote than ever.

FOREIGN DEADLOCK

While it is believed here that the presence of Gen. Von Hindenburg at the head of the Reich cannot influence the acts of the German Cabinet and Parliament, it is known that he will insist upon a thorough revision of Germany's eastern frontiers and that the French cannot and will not accept it.

Therefore, the guarantee pact by ex-Premier Herriot is not likely to be concluded in the near future. This will bring up again the questions of the evacuation of Cologne and the Allies' military control in Germany. The preliminary solutions of these problems will have to be revised.

It is expected that the military pact in France will not be accepted by the new German government, and will force the Poincaré-Caillaux Cabinet, which is known for its friendly disposition toward Germany, to take a stern attitude toward the Reich.

This is obvious from today's Socialist papers, which deplore Gen. Von Hindenburg's election, not so much on account of his personality and views as because it is likely to jeopardize France's tremendous efforts toward the pacification and demilitarization of Europe, to realize which the country has made enormous sacrifices in the last eight months.

WOMEN QUIT AUTHOR IN HAYS'S FILM COMMITTEE

Federation Plans to Form Council to Eliminate Objectionable Pictures

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW ORLEANS, April 27.—The General Federation of Women's Clubs has withdrawn its representation from the Will R. Hays motion picture committee.

Mrs. D. Sherman of Estes Park, president, announced today the council meeting of the first of second districts of Louisiana Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Sherman said while there has been some improvement in the standard of motion pictures recently, there were still many instances of objectionable pictures.

Especially upon the younger members, she said, the federation had little voice in shaping the motion picture industry.

Motion pictures would continue to be a vital subject before the motion picture industry.

The motion picture industry, she added, and it is to be hoped, will be eliminated.

FIGHT OVER PASSPORTS

Mrs. Herbert Little Asks Right to Travel Abroad as Ruby Black

(EXCLUSIVE DESPATCH)

MADISON (Wis.) April 27.—A diplomatic battle with the State Department at Washington has been precipitated by Ruby Black, formerly an instructor in journalism at the University of Wisconsin, and author, over the claim that she be allowed to obtain passports to go to Europe bearing her maiden name, instead of the name of her husband.

Ever since her marriage, three years ago, to Herbert Little, a Madison newspaper correspondent, Miss Black has retained her maiden name, and declares the State Department has no right to say you are Ruby Black in this country and then when you go to Europe insist that your name is Mrs. Herbert Little.

In her passport fight, Miss Black has enlisted the aid of the Women's party officials, who are not satisfied with the present ruling of the State Department on the matter with the State Department until the right for a woman to use her maiden name on a passport is made permissible for all women.

IN THE SPRING A TROJAN'S FANCY---

MICKY WALKER WITH US AGAIN

Welterweight Boxing Champ Arrives in City

To Begin Work in Series of Film Features

Given Rousing Reception by Picture Stars

Mickey Walker, world's welter king, who is to fight Lefty Cooper in the north May 16, arrived here yesterday from the East, and was given a rousing California welcome. When Mickey stepped off the Santa Fe Limited Abe Lyman's Orchestra struck up, "I Love You, California," and a bevy of pulchritudinous movie queens surrounded him.

Mickey is here to start work in a series of pictures under the direction of Jack Kearns, manager of the ex-heavyweight champion of the world, Jack Dempsey, and his reception was in accord with the atmosphere with which he will soon be surrounded.

LOOKS LIKE SET-UP

The welter king will be here a week before he leaves for San Francisco to train for the fight with Cooper in the ball park. This is prophesied as a pushover for him by the wise ones, and Walker is scheduled to return immediately to Los Angeles to resume work on the pictures Kearns has outlined for him.

During his stay this week Walker probably will be closeted with Jack Doyle relative to a match in the open air this summer. Frankie Schoell and Oakland Jimmy Duffy are his most likely opponents.

Kearns, Teddy Hayes, Tom Kennedy and other local fight celebrities were at the station to greet Walker.

Among those from the film colony to greet Mickey were Pauline Glavin, Mary Astor, Clara Horton and Olive Ann Bacon. The girls gave Mickey his first taste of studio life, dubbing the champ with huge powder puffs and making him just as uncomfortable and embarrassed as 'ney knew how.

GETS IN WRONG

"Wish I could play opposite you," sighed Pauline Glavin. "So do I," said Mickey. Right then and there he got in wrong. Three other girls, Clara, Mary and Olive, hooted.

"Well," said Jack Kearns, "I'll fix it up with you directors so you can all work with him. How's that?"

"Great," echoes the quartet. And that's that.

BUILDERS TRIM POSTMEN

Hitting hard and often the American Building Material Company baseball team spoiled the debut of the Hollywood Postoffice nine, in the Twilight League yesterday, handing the Postmen an 8-to-2 beating. Moore and Butler performed for the Builders. Coules and Adams were the Postoffice battery.

HERD SIGNS TO MENTOR U.S.C. FROSH

Former Cornell Star to Coach Trojan Gridders and Act as Scout

Clifton B. (Chiff) Herd, whose eagle eyes and keen football knowledge have made him the best-known grid scout on the Pacific Coast, yesterday signed a one-year contract to assist Howard Jones in coaching the U.S.C. frosh.

Herd will have charge of the Trojan freshmen and will also do considerable scouting of other Pacific Coast Conference elevens.

Efforts were made by Jones last fall to get Herd to assist, but at that time it looked as if business would keep Chiff from accepting the offer. During the past few days he has been busy arranging matters suitable and yesterday signed the contract.

SHANGHAIED BY THE MOVIES

Mickey Walker, world's welterweight champion, is soon to be inducted into the "film" art. The champ confided to an intimate friend that he longed to follow in the footsteps of Rudolph Valentino, Doug Fairbanks, Burt Lancaster and other screen celebrities.

Mary Akin, beautiful creature of the screen, teased in on the rumor and lost no time rushing down to the depot yesterday to greet the fabled king upon his arrival from the East. As soon as Mary learned Mickey's wife was still safely intrenched somewhere along the Atlantic Coast she surrounded the champ and after a pleasant scuffle finally overcame him and daubed a bit of Dior Kiss powder upon his rosy cheek—oh, Daddy!

WEISSMULLER SWIMS HERE

Aquatic Champ to Appear in Mercury Tank Tonight in Attempt to Break Duke's Record

Johnny Weissmuller, the Nurni of the aquatic world, who will be here and in action tonight is attracting interest second only to that shown in the great runner. The king of swimmers, holder of at least twenty-three crowns and ready to capture more, will be the star attraction in the L.A.A.C. plunge, with plenty of other stars grouped about him, and the fans have reason to expect a royal performance. Coach Cady has mapped out the following program for the big meet:

50-yard free-style swim, John Weissmuller vs. San Kahanamoku. In this event Weissmuller will endeavor to lower Duke Kahanamoku's great record made in the Mercury tank—and he usually accomplishes what he sets out to do.

800-foot relay, Illinois Athletic Club team vs. Los Angeles Athletic Club team, in which the fastest men in the country will battle for club supremacy.

Comedy act, Weissmuller and Stubby Kruger. About the funniest stunts ever seen in or on the water.

Exhibition fancy diving, Pete Des Jardines and Leland Tipton. Two of the best that the world affords.

JOHN M'GRAW CELEBRATES THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR IN BASEBALL

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, April 27.—John J. McGraw, manager of the champion New York Giants of the National League, today celebrated the thirty-fifth anniversary of his entry into professional baseball.

McGraw made his start with the Olean (N. Y.) club of the Oil and Iron League on April 27, 1890, when he was 17 years old. In the language of the man who last year piloted the New York Club to its fourth consecutive pennant, he was a "terrible bust." He said today he played so poorly after his first game, he was benched. The Olean club had lost all of the games in which he appeared.

McGraw, who had been a pitcher prior to joining the Olean club, later made good as a third baseman, and in the middle of the season of 1891, joined the Baltimore Orioles.

(SPECIAL REPORT)
POMONA COLLEGE (Claremont) April 27. — Encouraged by their surprise defeat of the Occidental College baseball team in one of the double-header games held Saturday, Coach Paul Perritt is preparing this week for the invasion of Caddy Work's smooth-running Southern Branch combination.
Coach Perritt is following last week's games with plenty of hitting and fielding practice on the local diamond and at least one or two practice tilts will be held along with skirmishes against Coach Heath's crack from baseballers.
Perritt's battery of pitchers, namely: Holmgren, the left-hander, who pitched the win over Occidental; Ted Shaw, sophomore right-hander, who pitched the loss; and Earl Marvitt, reserve pitcher, are all displaying their wares each afternoon in practice. Holmgren's fine mound work and equally fine willow were last Saturday making it a safe bet that he will start the Southern Branch game.

SANTA BARBARA GETS SCHUTTE SERVICE

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.) April 27.—Clarence Schutte, crack back of the University of Minnesota football team, today wired acceptance of the position of football, basketball and track coach at Santa Barbara (Cal.) High School.
Two California high schools, San Diego and Santa Barbara, have been bidding for the services of the flashy Gopher halfback, who gained national attention last fall through his brilliant performance in Minnesota's 20-7 upset of Illinois and the first setback of the season of Red Grange. Schutte will take up his coaching duties next fall.

Floyd Johnson and Eddie Huffman Battle at Vernon Tonight

GUESS WHO IT IS!

No, this isn't Jess Willard staging another comeback. It looks like the rushing huge form of the ex-heavyweight champion though. It is Floyd Johnson, the Frisco steelworker who went East two years ago and won eight straight fights by knockouts. He meets Eddie Huffman tonight at Vernon in the star bout.

Floyd Johnson, regarded as the greatest heavyweights in the country, will battle Eddie Huffman tonight at Vernon in the star bout.

PORTLAND, April 27.—The Beavers won the series from Oakland, three games to two, by taking today's postponed engagement, 4 to 2. Lawrence for Portland was in continual difficulty, except in the first and sixth innings, when he pitched a double play by first-bagger and Cooper, and Cather's double, scored two, and in the seventh, when he walked and ran, but was amazingly steady in the pinches.
The Beavers made one in the second on a walk to High and Crosby's double, but won the game in the fourth when successive doubles by McCann and Benton, and Charley High's homer brought in three more. Score:

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) April 27.—Adverse weather conditions kept most of the Kentucky Derby candidates quartered indoors yesterday. The outstanding event so far as preparation for the classic goes was the demonstration of Capt. Hal A. A. Kaiser's colt, that he can run as well in the mud as on a fast track when he breezes five-eighths of a mile in 1:02.

TEST OF BLOOD FLOW EVOLVED

Determination Data

WASHINGTON, April 27.—A method of determining the volume of flow of blood per minute through the human system, a matter of great importance to medical science and a problem that has remained unsolved since William Harvey discovered the phenomena of circulation in the seventeenth century, was revealed at the meeting of the National Academy of Sciences here today by Dr. Yandell Henderson and Howard W. Haggard of the Sheffield Scientific School at Yale University.

Heretofore medical science has relied for its information along this line upon a method based on absorption of nitrous oxide from the lungs, a test which is inaccurate and of extremely limited applicability. What the medical profession has needed was some means of determining the functional efficiency of the circulation in individuals under all conditions. Dr. Henderson announced that the method worked out in the laboratories at the Sheffield school is not only "accurate and reliable," but also "applicable to virtually all conditions. The test, as explained, consists of having the subject inhale a vapor of ethyl iodine and determining the respiratory exchange. The whole test, including inhalation and analysis can be completed by one operator in thirty minutes.

TWICE SIZE SUPPOSED

With the tests made by Dr. Henderson, it has been found that the blood stream pumped by the heart is twice as large as was formerly supposed.

"During bodily rest its volume in liters per minute is about equal to the volume of air breathed per minute," Dr. Henderson said. "During exercise, respiration may increase eight or ten-fold and the circulation four or five-fold.

"Hot baths quicken the circulation without greatly increasing the oxygen consumption. Thus they further reduce the oxygen difference and raise the pressure of oxygen in the tissues. On the other hand, during muscular exertion, which is vigorous, but such as can be sustained for a considerable time, involving an oxygen consumption of about two liters per minute, the circulation increases from a resting value of seven or eight liters per minute for a man of 70 or 80 kilos (154 or 175 pounds) up to a flow of thirty liters or more per minute.

Dr. Henderson told his audience that the quickest way to sober up a drunken man is to have him breathe rapidly. He stated that after thirty or forty minutes of that breathing the alcohol should all be absorbed into his system.

SEX DETERMINATION

A step nearer solution of the problem of sex determination was announced by Dr. Oscar Riddle of the Carnegie Institution's bureau of genetics, who, from data collected during four years' experiments on pigeons, has discovered that there is a relation between size of the thyroid glands and the sex of the offspring. The thyroid becomes larger in fall and winter, reduced in spring and is at its lowest in summer. The highest proportions of males he has found, corresponds to the period of largest thyroids and the highest proportion of females to the period of lowest thyroids. Thus, the females predominate in spring and summer and males in fall and winter.

"This data," he said, "demonstrates the practicability of dealing with the sex by chemical and physiological methods."

Manufacturer's Officer Asserts Industry May be Benefited by Inquiry

(BY A. P. NORTON WIRE)
CHICAGO, April 27.—Manufacturers of furniture have nothing to fear from an investigation properly conducted, William B. Baker, secretary of the National Association of Chair Manufacturers, declared in a statement today commenting on the Federal grand jury investigation of more than 800 representatives of the furniture industry under way here.

"Wholesale prices of furniture are considerably lower than they were at the peak of 1920 and better values are being put into furniture because of the keen competitive conditions that exist," Mr. Baker's statement said. "Manufacturers of furniture have everything to gain from a thorough investigation of the facts."

Three representatives of the Attorney-General will prosecute the investigation here of an asserted combination in the furniture industry in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act. Three hundred subpoenas have been issued.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—New Engines will be installed soon in the dirigible Shenandoah to increase her cruising radius from 4000 to 5000 miles. The five 300-horsepower Packard engines now in the ship will be replaced with three of the new 700-horsepower Packard engines.

BALFOUR APPOINTED TO BRITISH CABINET

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
LONDON, April 27.—The Earl of Balfour today joined the British Cabinet, being appointed Lord President of the Council in succession to Marquess Curzon, who died recently.

"My Car is a Red One —It Cost $30,000"

"I take it to town every day and have a man to drive it for me.

"This regular, comfortable, dependable, ever-ready transportation costs me an average of $9 per month (I live 13 miles out of Los Angeles). No depreciation, no interest on capital invested, no oil, gasoline or repair expense.

"When I drove my motor car the same distance every day, it cost me $52 monthly—more than $600 a year—Pretty costly 'carfare'!

"Yes and I save more than money. Now I save the 'nerve strain' of driving through congested traffic, the worry of delays.

"Instead I read my paper and relax after breakfast and before dinner at night which has improved my digestion 100%.

"I'm not so tired. I work better and feel fit for evening fun.

"I get regular daily exercise—voluntarily walking three or four blocks to and from a more distant corner than I need to reach to get my Red Car—that has made me feel like a new man. Before, I never walked anywhere and was sluggish and dull.

"Now I use my car on holidays and Sundays and enjoy it twice as much, leaving it at home on week days for my wife to use for errands and shopping."

Just try this plan yourself for two weeks and note the difference in you, too.

These big Red Cars cost from $25,000 to $45,000 to build.

They are comfortable, clean and safe. They keep you out of traffic jams. Another does the driving—you can read.

Begin tomorrow. Try this better way,

NOTE: This advertising is not to discourage the purchase and ownership of automobiles for pleasure or business use. What we advocate is that it would be an advantage to use The Red Cars in traveling between the home and place of business, when it can be done by use of commutation tickets.

SHEPHERD TRIAL DATE SET

Heir to McClintock Estate Indicted for Murder of Foster Son Arraigned; Sees Wife in Court

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
CHICAGO, April 27.—William Darlin Shepherd, indicted for the murder of his foster son, William McClintock, with typhoid germs, will be brought to trial May 18.

The date was set by Judge Lynch today when the heir to the McClintock millions was arraigned. The assignment came after an argument between lawyers and a futile fifth attempt to obtain Shepherd's release on bail.

Mr. Shepherd saw his husband today for the first time since he was taken to the County Jail. She was waiting in the courtroom when he was brought up to the prisoner's pen. She was allowed to go into the pen and sit beside him while waiting for his case to be called.

She threw her arms about his neck and he embraced her affectionately. Then they sat down on the long bench, where he chatted with her smilingly, reassuring her of his hopes for release and patting her hand.

She remained at his side when he was brought into the courtroom and walked with him to the barred door afterward. When the hearing was over and Shepherd was being taken back to the jail she clung to him weeping until she was led away by the Rev. C. A. "Auntie" Evanson, the Shepherd's pastor.

Wedding Bells, Bigamy Halted by Dinner Bell

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
CEDAR RAPIDS (Iowa) April 27.—The ringing of the dinner bell prevented the ringing of wedding bells for William Hinrich here today. Consequently, he will not face a charge of bigamy. Hinrich had been arrested on a statutory charge in which Miss Gelda Stelner was the complainant.

"Wedding bells or prison?" said Judge James B. Travis.

"Wedding bells for mine," Hinrich replied.

A constable started to the marriage bureau with him. Before they arrived the Courtroom closed for dinner. After dinner the constable picked up Hinrich's brother for a witness to the ceremony.

"If Bill marries again he'll be a bigamist," said the brother. "He has a wife at Cedar Junction."

Bill was locked up.

GRAND CANYON ROAD BEGUN

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
GRAND CANYON (Ariz.) April 27.—Construction work on the new Desert View Road in Grand Canyon National Park has started. Two small crews are at work clearing the right-of-way, and as soon as the new trail is completed, probably in two weeks, these crews will be transferred to heavy construction work on the road. This is the first project on a three-year program during which approximately $500,000 will be spent by the National Park Service in making all sections of the park available to visitors.

Brazil's Cotton, Africa's Wheat Show Increases

(BY A. P. NORTON WIRE)
WASHINGTON, April 27.—The International Institute of Agriculture today advised the Department of Agriculture that Brazilian cotton acreage will be smaller for the current year than last year, but production will be larger. Acreage was estimated at 1,573,000 acres compared with 1,946,000 last year, and production at 1,573,000 compared with 1,946,000 last year.

The institute reported an increase in the wheat area for the three North African provinces Algeria, French Morocco and Tunis, the acreage being estimated at 2,570,000 acres compared with 2,570,000 last year. The report said that although it is too early to estimate production, indications point to a considerable crop increase.

LAND QUIZ DEALS WITH NONCONTESTED CLAIMS

(BY A. P. NORTON WIRE)
WASHINGTON, April 27.—Discussion of noncontested matter largely occupied the attention of the Congressional commission investigating land grants to the Northern Pacific Railway Company. D. F. McGowan, attorney for the Forest Service, continued with the presentation of the government's position, but most of his testimony was confined to subjects investigating the adjustment of land claims which are not contested.

For converting present

Frigidaire
$190

The frost coil of a Frigidaire is colder than ice—colder by about twelve degrees. It maintains a constant low temperature in the food compartment. In any weather that means better food preservation.

In place of the dampness of melting ice, Frigidaire provides a constant, dry cold. Without ice, without muss or trouble, it gives you continuous, convenient and economical refrigeration.

It keeps food fresh indefinitely—fresh and pure as the day it came to your home. It preserves every bit of the original flavor. And it safeguards health too, for its low temperature guards against the development of harmful bacteria.

Frigidaire makes new and delicious frozen desserts for your table. It freezes dainty ice cubes from your own pure drinking water. It adds greatly to kitchen convenience—makes house-keeping much easier. Yet with all these advantages it costs less to operate than you are probably paying now for ice.

There are thirty-two Frigidaire models. Twelve of them are built complete with cabinet. Twenty are designed for converting ice boxes into Frigidaire. Come in and let us tell you how inexpensively Frigidaire can be put into your home.

Rock-Built Cairn Rests on Peak Bearing Name

Sought to Convert Pimas to Ancient Belief

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
FLORENCE (ARIZ.) April 27.—A great rock-built monument at the summit of Poston Butte was formally dedicated yesterday. Within it had been sealed a metal casket containing the mortal remains of Charles H. Poston, “Father of Arizona.” On one face of the cairn has been set a marble slab, taken from the grave in which Interment had been made at Phoenix, and on the other a copper tablet on which had been chiseled a brief history of Poston’s career.

Erection of the memorial had been by convicts from the near-by State penitentiary, on plans made by Supt. R. B. Simms. The idea that Poston’s remains should rest on the peak that bears his name had been forwarded by the Phoenix Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution, represented at the ceremony by Mrs. Thomas T. Moore, chapter regent, and Mrs. Ethel Clark, chairman of the active committee.

GOVERNOR IS SPEAKER
The list of speakers was headed by Gov. G. W. P. Hunt, who was followed by State Historian George H. Kelly and former State Historian James H. McClintock. Responsibility for maintenance of the memorial was assumed by Mayor A. L. McCann, representing the near-by city of Florence. In attendance were several hundred Arizonans, with inclusion of many pioneers, while the music was furnished by the Florence city school band headed by Supt. H. Q. Robertson.

Poston Butte is a solitary conical hill that the plain a short distance west of the Gila River bridge of the main State highway. In 1875, Poston, then in charge of the Federal land office at Florence, planned erection of a temple to the sun, to carry out ideas he had absorbed while on a diplomatic mission to India. He built a rough road to the summit and made an unsuccessful effort to secure aid from the Shah of Persia, on the basis that here could be re-established the ancient faith of the Indians, declared a close approach to the Zoroastrian. A watchtower, indicated by a circle of stones, he visualized as a prehistoric sun temple, used by the Pimas, whose reservation it overlies. On the spot, his earthly remnant has been given a secure resting spot, just as he wished might be done.

ENTER ARIZONA
Within a week, Charles DeBrille Poston was born 100 years before the date of the monument’s dedication. He was a Kentuckian, of revolutionary stock. About 1810 he was an inspector in the San Francisco custom house. In January, 1834, a member of a prospecting party, he entered Arizona by way of Guaymas. Two years later came again, leading through Texas a large party that had been financed in New York to reopen old Spanish silver mines south of Tucson.

In 1852, after serving as aide to his old friend and mining associate, Gen. S. P. Henszelman, he helped in the organization of the new Territory of Arizona. He was made Indian commissioner. In the first Territorial election Poston was chosen delegate in Congress. One of his bills sought $1,750,000 for the loss of the Santa Rita mines. After 1867 he saw much of foreign lands. Then came his experience at Florence, followed by governmental service in El Paso. Thereafter for five years he was in an interior department office in Washington, finally shifted back to Phoenix in 1880 as an agent of the agricultural bureau.

STATE PROVIDES HEADSTONE
June 24, 1902, he died alone, in his home in Phoenix. Four years later, a legislative appropriation provided a headstone for his grave.

Poston was married twice, with issue of one daughter, who married Dr. B. F. Pope, who died in the Philippines, a colonel in the army medical corps. Two grandsons survive, resident in San Francisco and Detroit.

SAFETY SIGNALS TO GUIDE AIRMEN

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
SAN ANTONIO (TEX.) April 27.—A block system for controlling air-traffic has been devised, and will be put in use as an experiment on the San Antonio-Tucson division of the San Antonio-Pacific airway. It is announced at Eighth Corps headquarters.

The purpose of the airway block signal will be to warn pilots of hazardous conditions ahead, without the necessity of landing at every field to determine conditions further along their routes. Although the principal use of the system in its experimental stage will be to warn against bad weather conditions, its range will by no means be confined to that as development progresses, air service men believe.

Experimental installations will be made at Fort Clark, Dryden, Marfa, Tucson and at Lordsburg, N. M., upon completion of the airfield at the latter place.

AUTOIST’S PLEA GOES UNHEEDED

Shanghai Gasoline User Must Guard Self from Fraudulent Measure

(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
SHANGHAI, April 27.—If a gasoline filling station attendant gives an autoist short measure, then the autoist is to blame and the civic authorities can do nothing. Such is the gist of a decision made here by the Shanghai Municipal Council.

A plea was made by officials of the Automobile Club of China for the Municipal Council to undertake the regular inspection and control of gasoline pumps in order to insure correct measurement of gas to the consumer. The plea was refused on the ground that it was doubtful if any condition as to correct measure which the council might attach to the permission to erect gasoline pumping stations in Shanghai would stand the test of legal action.

Furthermore the council spokesman stated that the periodic inspection of gasoline pumps would necessitate an increase in the police force, and it is not considered that the whole community could be asked to shoulder the expense for the benefit of motorists only.

“The remedy for the irregularities,” the statement adds, “appears to lie with the purchasers of gasoline as in the case of coal and other commodities.”

Church Women Chain Piano as Bar to Burglary

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
TUSCOLA (ILL.) April 27.—Robbery has become so prevalent in this community that farmers keep their chickens in the cellars, nail down everything portable, and the banks are offering $1000 reward for every dead bank robber.

Even the churches are not immune from the predatory hands coming out of St. Louis. This explains why the piano in the church is securely chained to heavy ring bolts on the floor and securely padlocked.

The Ladies Aid Society of the church earned the money to buy the piano by numerous socialables and they did not fancy the idea of miscreants probably driving up and carrying off their prize.

Hence the heavy chains and the padlock which excite the curiosity of strangers who occasionally attend service.

Success Seen in Effort to Glorify

Effort to Check Blaze in Canyon

Latest reports received yesterday at the office of the supervisor of the Angeles National Forest, indicated that the fight to control a brush fire which has been burning fiercely for the last twenty-four hours in the Mill Creek Canyon, near the town of San Dimas, is assured of success within a few hours.

The fire broke out Sunday afternoon and is believed to have been caused by a camper. Its presence is a menace to the important structures above the Monte Cristo saddle, and is apparent mockery of the fire gods to American Forest Rangers, whose jurisdiction was observed yesterday, which started Sunday at midnight.

STATE RECORDS SOLD FOR JUNK

Nebraska Iconoclasts Sell Priceless Papers

Historian Protests in Vain Against Sacrilege

Penny-Pinching Officials Deaf to Appeals

OMAHA, April 27.—For $7 a ton Nebraska is selling off, as old junk, all the early-day records of the State which have been kept in the archives of the old Statehouse at Lincoln. The State officers are moving from the old Statehouse into the new State Capitol and the old records, which the State Historical Society pronounces of incalculable historical value are being sold to the junkman at a contract price of $7 per ton. A. E. Sheldon, secretary of the State Historical Society, has just written Gov. McMillen protesting against the destruction of these records. The junking of the records has been under way for two weeks now, and practically all have been destroyed except those in the Governor's office. These latter are considered of supreme importance by Mr. Sheldon. "It's an historical crime to destroy any of these old documents, either manuscript or typewritten, without letting them be carefully scrutinized for their historical importance," said Secretary Sheldon, in his letter of protest to the Governor. Gov. McMillen and Atty. Gen.

Where to Dine

Interesting suggestions appear this morning on The Times travel, hotel and resort page.

Spillman are themselves going over the records before they are destroyed. "But it is almost impossible for competent historical authorities to select the good from the bad in such documents," says Sheldon, "and now it is being done by those without historical training." Authority for this wholesale destruction of the State's records was made by the last Legislature. Among the records being destroyed upon which Sheldon places special value are those concerning the acts of the State Relief Commission of the '70's and '80's. These original documents, Sheldon says, give a view of actual conditions in Nebraska in those days which no other documents can give. Blizzards, floods, drought, Indian wars and raids, famine, and want and other affairs of the new State are contained in the records which are being destroyed. The records show Nebraska's early settlers suffered far more from the attacks of grasshoppers than from the raids of the Sioux and other Indians.

EPOCHAL HISTORY

Among the records, somewhere, is the official story of a school teacher who, during the big blizzard, froze to death but saved the children. There is the story of the building of the railroads from the Missouri to the Rocky Mountains, the story of the transferring of the "Great American Desert" into the "world's bread basket," that of the settlement of the famous "sand hills" and thousands of documents connected with the winning of the West. "And it's all so unnecessary," says Secretary Sheldon. "These priceless records could be stored in the basement of the new State Capitol until trained archivists could go over them and remove and preserve those of value. Then the others could be sold, if the State needs the money that badly." But Gov. McMillen is not very much in favor of sending the old records into the basement of the new Capitol. In fact, he does not want the building littered up with the old records and says he will get them out of the way as quickly as possible.

LAKEHURST (N. J.) April 27.—The dirigible Los Angeles was taken from its hangar to its mooring mast tonight preparatory to its scheduled flight to Porto Rico tomorrow night. Capt. George W. Steele will be in charge of the flight. TULSA (Ariz.) April 27.—George W. Lynn, editor and publisher of the Tulsa Evening Herald, who was arrested last Saturday on two charges of criminal libel preferred by E. F. Sanguntini, merchant and landowner of Tulsa, was released from jail late today after being held there since Saturday. Lynn gave bond of $2500. When first placed in jail he declared that he would not furnish bond as he feared that it might jeopardize his constitutional rights. The preliminary hearing of the charges against Lynn will be held tomorrow before Justice of the Peace J. H. Smith.

EVEN the little injuries can lead to great trouble. If you cut or break the skin, microbes often get in; and if they do, they usually cause dangerous inflammation. Take care of the cuts, burns, scrapes, blisters, etc. Cleanse them well—then apply Resinol Ointment. It keeps the smarting at once and start the healing right. Its soothing medication helps nature to fight germ invasion, and close the wound in a healthy way. Resinol Soap has the same soothing qualities which help it to thoroughly cleanse and preserve the skin. It's the same time—ideal for the complexion and bath.

JAZZ RULES CITY OF WALTZES

Comedienne Says Vienna Dance Mad

Frances Arms

"VIENNA, once the city of lilting, languorous waltzes, so well known through our light operettas, has now become jazz crazy," says Frances Arms, a blond singing comedienne at the Hillstreet Theater this week. "Miss Arms has but recently returned from Europe, where she went seeking material for her song characterizations. "Vienna is dancing night and day," she continues, "at 5 o'clock tea, between courses at dinner, and still at 8 o'clock in the morning. It is American jazz which infused this new zest in the gaiety of this famous city. In the dance they have found that life is still worth living, and the fox trot and tango have completely crowded out the seductive strains of the old Viennese waltzes. "Everywhere one hears the loud rattling-bang-bang of American jazz bands. Even the dancing schools seldom receive a request to teach the old-time waltz. The largest dancing school in Europe is in Vienna. It has twenty-eight teachers and an average of 400 pupils a day take lessons there. "Fat men and plump ladies," concludes Miss Arms, "dance for hours in the hope that it will make them youthful and slender again. And the waltz is almost forgotten in the rage of the jazz steps."

NO DIVORCE, SAYS NAZIMOVA

Star Lays Rumor of Suit by Declaring She Sails for Paris Today for a Good Time

NEW YORK, April 27.—"I sail for Paris tomorrow to have a good time, not to get a divorce."

With these fifteen words, spoken with slightly foreign accent, Alla Nazimova answered the current rumor that she will bring suit for divorce against her husband, Charles Bryant.

"I do not want to talk about marital troubles," she continued, "with some of the fire that has made her a successful stage and screen star. "What are the marital troubles to which you allude?" she was asked. "Please, I cannot, I cannot discuss such questions with anyone who does not belong to my own family," the temperamental lady replied tartly, then added in a burst of sweetness, "I am so tired. There have been fittings and callers and appointments and worries, all day. My dinner gown is soiled."

MAKE PICTURES

A tantalizing odor was wafted from another room. Surely it was—but no, it could not be. "I may make a picture in Paris," madame continued, "perhaps another in Berlin. I have signed no contracts and shall not until I have talked with my agents. Then I'll come back home."

She wore a black flat crepe frock trimmed with Russian embroidery and other hand-made touches. The thick black hair, now gray, was in its characteristic halo effect.

Mrs. Minnie Dillman, her nurse and companion, appeared. "The soup is getting cold," she said reproachfully. "Again that tempting smell."

"What kind of soup is it, Mme. Nazimova?"

"It's onion soup," she cried with a farewell wave of her hands, and fled.

NO DENIAL BY HUSBAND

Charles Bryant, her husband, who resides at his apartment at 34 West Forty-ninth street, while his wife stays at the Jockey Inn, did not deny that a divorce was pending, but refused to discuss the matter.

Bryant is an actor of note, an author, a stage and film director, and lately has been in the scenario of the industry. He is six feet tall, handsome, athletic and an Englishman. Nazimova, on the other hand, is fragile and thin, and admits she does not share in any of her husband's outdoor tastes. But it was precisely because they were so different, she said in an interview not long ago, that they got on so well.

"I believe our love has lasted so long because we are of vastly different temperaments," she said. "I am as moody as the weather. But Mr. Bryant is always bright, serene as a clear sunny day. He likes to get up at 6 o'clock in the morning to play handball or take long walks, while I want to curl up on a couch to read. So we each do as we please. I believe people of opposite temperaments should marry."

OLD KING SHORTLEAF A grub could be made of humankind could be conserved by putting trees to fully mature before taking them to market, is illustrated in the case of "Old King Shortleaf," the greatest shortleaf pine tree in the South. This tree was killed by lightning and had to be cut down in its third-hundred year. Its trunk furnished more than 20,000 board feet of superior lumber, sufficient to build a comfortable six-room house. It was 120 feet in length and seven feet and three inches in diameter at the stump. It measured ninety-one feet from the stump to the first limb and was four feet in diameter at this height. A log train of sixteen flatcars was required to carry the pine king to the sawmill. Most of the logs were loaded one to the car, owing to size and weight. (Thrifty Magazine.)

FRIENDS PLOT BANDIT RESCUE

Chicago Chief Told Plan to Free Midget Marauder

Heavy Police Squads Guard Against Jail Break

Prisoner's Crimes Said to Have Netted Million

CHICAGO, April 27.—Details of a plot to rescue Henry J. Fernekes, midget bandit, who robbed 100 banks and killed at least five men, have reached Chief of Detectives William Schoemaker.

It was at first planned by Fernekes's fellow-murderers to restore him to freedom by shooting down all the police who were to accompany Fernekes to New York. Now Chief Schoemaker is forewarned against efforts to liberate him from his police cell, or later from the County Jail.

This information, which was given first to Chief of Police Collins, is expected to have great weight in the conference in which it will be decided whether to permit Fernekes's extradition or to try him here for murder. Chief Schoemaker said there is sufficient evidence and indication here to justify a hanging verdict.

Before Fernekes was identified here as one of the murder crew that killed Michael Swinbanks in a robbery of $13,000 in cash, it was intended to send him east for trial for the killing of two bank clerks in a robbery at Pearl River, N. Y.

"Now, if we keep him here, we will have to guard him as we never guarded a prisoner before," Chief Schoemaker remarked. "We would have to have perhaps fifty policemen as an escort to take him to New York."

He said Fernekes must have at least $1,000,000 in cash hidden away, and that his accomplices no doubt have as much. They robbed more than forty banks in all and near Chicago recently. All their lives are forfeit if they are caught and they run the risk of betrayal by Fernekes, the chief explained, therefore, he believes a desperate effort will be made by them to release Fernekes from the clutch of the law.

DOWN WITH STYLE PIRACY

What is known as "style piracy" is that practiced by certain unscrupulous dress manufacturers who make a practice of buying a gown or dress from some high-grade designer or manufacturer and then proceeding to have it copied in quantities to be sold on the market flooded with cheap imitations. The fight against this imposition has been going on for some time, but the custom has not been successfully combated. Heretofore the efforts have been made in the direction of inducing the dressmakers to refuse to copy these designs, but it has been found that this could not be done, and now special pressure is being brought to bear on the dealers, storekeepers and the buyers employed by the great stores to discourage the practice and refuse to do business with a dealer or manufacturer who countenances this practice. The evil of it is said to be in the imposition. These imitations are often palmed off as the original, although pressure is being brought to bear on the dealers, storekeepers and the buyers employed by the great stores to discourage the practice and refuse to do business with a dealer or manufacturer who countenances this practice. TO IMPROVE FOREST ROADS

More than $500,000 may be expended this year on roads in Colorado's national forests. J. W. Johnson, district engineer of the bureau of reclamation, announced that the branch of the Federal service which he represents has $450,000 for road building this year. In the expenditure of $150,000 of that sum, the State will be required to put up a certain amount, to be determined. If the State matches the Federal money dollar for dollar, it will be the year's total on forest service roads to $550,000.

Expenditure of the road money will be under the direction of the Federal Bureau of Roads. It may be used on Federal aid projects, State-owned projects or county roads in the national forests of the State. Johnson said that in making the budget the policy will be to use the money as far as possible on the completion of roads already begun.

BIG CUT OF FIR TREES

Twenty-eight million feet of lumber from a tract of 160 acres. This is what Washington Douglas fir can do, perhaps even better in some of the stands of virgin forest, populated with trees some centuries old, says Nature Magazine. The stand that produced this cut is not far from the entrance to Mt. Rainier National Park. The stumps are still there, four and six feet across. But the stumps are blackened, and the absence of feeling of walking through the lanes of a human hand. None of your previous experiences has quite prepared you for this cataclysmic gloom. Prevent tooth decay below the gum-line

As the soil nourishes the tree roots, the gums nourish the teeth. And as the tree decays if you bare the roots, so do the teeth decay when gum shrinkage starts in. This condition—one of the first stages of Pyorrhea—is very common and something that ordinary tooth pastes are powerless to prevent. If not checked promptly it will lead to loss of teeth and serious organic diseases.

If used in time and used consistently twice daily, Forhan's will prevent Pyorrhea or check its progress. It will preserve the gums in their pink, normal, healthy condition, safeguard your health and keep your mouth clean, fresh and wholesome. Forhan's is more than a tooth paste; it checks Pyorrhea. Thousands have found it beneficial for years. For your own sake ask for and get Forhan's For the Gums. At all druggists, 35c and 60c in tubes.

PARIS SUBWAYS GROW "If everybody would think of Paris as a huge factory which employs 123,000 workers, which receives and spends millions, which must furnish water, gas and electricity to 5,000,000 human beings, which must assure daily transportation for them, then everybody would understand the vastness of the problems which we have to face; we would at least get some sympathy from our citizens. "This is what M. Naundorff, prefect of the Seine, Mayor of Paris, said as we sat in his big study watching the towers of Notre Dame lighted up by the sun and while we heard from afar the stir of the big city.

"Will you favor the construction of new subway lines in Paris?" "Most certainly; they are indispensable, and I fear that even the big boulevards will have to have subway stations. Our subterranean train system has indeed arrived at nearly the maximum efficiency. Line No. 3 for instance, is the most crowded subway line in Paris. The trains succeed each other there at intervals of one minute and forty-five seconds. The record of New York city is one minute and thirty seconds between trains. To go any farther would mean to risk catastrophes."—Le Matin.

OPEN TRIAL OF WINN MURDER

Harry O. Baker Faces Court at San Bernardino

State Builds Case on Strong String of Circumstances

Technical Testimony Feature of Case

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
SAN BERNARDINO, April 27.—San Bernardino's most sensational murder case of a decade opens tomorrow when Harry O. Baker, the accused slayer of James Winn, a taxi driver, faces a jury in court of Superior Judge Charles L. Allison.

A venire of seventy-five residents of widely scattered districts of the county, called by Probation Officer George Larmore, will report at 9 o'clock, when the selecting of a jury will begin. It is probable that the entire day will be occupied with the selecting of the laymen. Thirty witnesses, most of whom were called by the State, will also report.

Although the State's case against Baker is built entirely on circumstantial evidence, Deputy District Attorney C. O. Thompson will ask that the jury be instructed to return either a first-degree murder verdict or acquittal. Attorney J. D. Randles of Los Angeles represents Baker.

Baker is accused of slaying Winn and hiding his body under a deserted ranch house near Highland on the night of November 27, when Baker and Harry Kirk hired the taxi driver for presumably a ride to Highland. Winn's body was found three days later by a searching party.

Baker and Kirk were traced to Mexico and Baker arrested three days later near Colton while en route to Arizona. Kirk, his asserted accomplice, has never been found, and officers believe that death has stifled his tongue against Baker.

Baker, after first denying knowledge of the crime, told officers that he and Kirk hired Winn and that Kirk killed the taxi driver, later stealing his car and driving to Santa Ana, where the automobile was found abandoned.

A mass of circumstantial evidence linking Baker directly with the crime, however, will be presented to the jury. Baker, it was testified, was seen on the night before the murder carrying a heavy iron bar. Winn was killed by blows over the head crushing his skull.

A shirt found in Baker's suitcase is another bit of evidence that will be introduced. The sleeve of the shirt have been washed—this Baker admits. A criminologist, J. Clark Seiler, will testify that a microscopic examination reveals blood stains, now invisible to the eye, on the shirt sleeve.

Baker's own statements, all made to a shorthand reporter, will be read to the jury. The case will probably require a week or longer.

Baker's defense will be based on the mysterious disappearance of Kirk, whom Baker claims deserted him while he slept in a San Diego hotel.

Hears Motion to Set Aside Jury's Charge

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
FRESNO, April 27.—After a long hearing this afternoon Superior Judge Denver S. Church told attorneys for Justice George W. Smith, accused by the grand jury of misconduct in office, to set aside the accusation.

Justice Smith, secretary of the 1924 grand jury, now dissolved, testified that three of the fourteen members who voted the charge failed to hear the testimony, and that three others excused themselves on the ground of bias. This self-charged "jury" after the jury refused to vote an indictment, he testified.

Justice Smith is accused of encouraging his clerk, Mrs. Wanda Hanson, to divert trust funds deposited with her to the amount of approximately $1150.

Attorneys for Smith attacked the insufficiency of the accusation and set up the defense that the charge was defective to the end it does not state facts sufficient to form an offense for which an official may be removed under the provisions of the code.

DIRECTORS IN COURT

Imperial Irrigation Officials Called as Witnesses in Injunction Case

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

EL CENTRO, April 27.—Hearing on the application of William Brandenburg of Calexico for an injunction to prevent the removal of the offices and shops of Imperial Irrigation District from Calexico to Imperial was begun in Superior Court here today. Judge Jamison of Modoc county is presiding at the trial, as Judges Cole and Conkling of Imperial county were declared disqualified to act.

Following closely the accusations of malfeasance in office made by the county grand jury directed against four of the irrigation district directors, the hearing is attracting considerable attention.

Brandenburg's application is based on a resolution adopted at a meeting of the board of directors last November, ordering that the machine shops and general offices at Calexico should be removed to Imperial. Since the action was taken, the directors have been expending in new buildings and grounds at Imperial in preparation for the establishment of the district's headquarters.

Brandenburg asserts that the action of the directors in this instance was illegal. The pay roll of the district at Calexico amounts to several thousand dollars monthly, Brandenburg claims. He also claims that the directors have been expending in new buildings and grounds at Imperial in preparation for the establishment of the district's headquarters.

The four directors named in the grand jury charges, Chairman Earl C. Pound, Ira Allen, Mark Rose and C. W. Brockman, with numerous other district officials and employees, appeared in court today. Testifying this afternoon in reply to questions by D. L. Ault, attorney for Brandenburg, the directors asserted that the adoption of the resolution ordering the removal of the offices and shops was over the objection of the directors.

Brandenburg's attorney, D. L. Ault, asserted that the directors had been expending in new buildings and grounds at Imperial in preparation for the establishment of the district's headquarters.

The glass of the injured car fell inward, cutting Mrs. Swanson's face and hands. The car from the impact threw her against the side of the car and it was thought that a rib had been broken and an arm fractured. Mrs. Swanson is the mother of Capt. George Swanson of the local police force. Swanson was driving south on Market street when the collision occurred.

The police declare in their report that Steves attempted to cut the corner at the time of the accident. He was driving west on Fifth street and was turning to travel on Fairmount boulevard. Frasier was going east on Fifth street.

NEW MAYOR IN OFFICE AT FRESNO

Change of Executive to be Followed by New Heads of Departments

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

FRESNO, April 27.—Lack of formality marked the induction into office today of a Mayor and two administrative commissioners of the city of Fresno, elected the 13th night at E. Sunderland, former secretary of the California Peach and Fig Growers' Inc., assumed office as Mayor. William Glass, publisher of the Fresno Bee, assumed office as City Manager. Fred Donahy, former Commissioner of Public Works.

Sunderland's first official acts were the acceptance of the resignation of Louis F. Ryan, executive secretary, who served since 1921, and a refusal to accept the resignation of City Attorney William F. Simpson. At Sunderland's request, Simpson agreed to remain in office until the new administration is safely organized and functioning.

The change of administration was the first since the city was incorporated in 1911, and with which many faults were found. The new administration was proposed here in November, but was defeated by a 5-to-4 vote.

Hart and Thomas E. Risley, retiring Mayor and Commissioner of Finance, respectively, were not present at the ceremony. They had been defeated by Sunderland, former commissioner, who sought re-election.

LOVED HIS DOG

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
SAN DIEGO, April 27.—Dependence over the loss of a pet dog, his sole companion for many years, is believed to have led to the suicide of Paul E. Schultz on his ranch near Lakeside.

Discovery of Schultz's body in his house was made by E. P. Fitch and W. Z. Kuhner, neighbors, as a result of a note left on the porch of the Fitch residence, asking him to tell Kuhner to go to the Schultz home. A letter there asked Kuhner to notify relatives.

Schultz is said to have brooded over the death of his dog, which some one had killed. He had attempted to find the dog's slayer for months, vowing to kill the man if he found him. The dog had been given to the rancher some years ago and had been trained by him as a hunter, and as such is said to have been one of the best in the country.

Victim Prominent Member of San Antonio Club

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
ALHAMBRA, April 27.—The heroic struggle of an Alhambra woman and Mrs. Loren Wellington, who risked her life on the edge of a steep canyon in her efforts to prevent the body of a stricken member of a hiking party from falling over the edge, was related here today in the story of the sudden collapse and death of Charles Webster, 47 years of age, on a mountain trail Sunday.

Webster, who was leading the party, suddenly reeled and fell dangerously close to the edge of the trail where there is a sheer drop of several hundred feet. Mrs. Wellington rushed to his side and clung to his body to prevent his falling over. Her husband reached her just in time to prevent a possible additional tragedy.

The party of five, including Mr. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Wellington and two young women, were returning from a week-end trip to the cabin of the San Antonio Club of this city, which Mr. Webster was a prominent member.

They were about a mile and a half above the Alpine Tavern when Webster, who was suffering from a hemorrhage, fell to the ground. Aid was summoned from the tavern, but the man, already dead, lay body on the trail and to the Pacific Electric incline railway.

A private funeral service was held from the parlors of F. A. Gitter and Son this evening, which was attended by members of the San Antonio Club. The remains will be shipped to Warren, R. I., for interment. One son, Louis M. Webster, of this city, survives.

Police Prevent Costly Fire by Early Discovery

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
REDLAND, April 27.—Vigilance of the police prevented a disastrous fire in Redlands early this morning.

Wheeler, former Santa Ana newspaper man who was high in social circles, stood trembling before Superior Judge F. C. Drumm today and pleaded that he be given the full penalty as a felon in place of a fine, because he had pleaded guilty.

On being informed his sentence would be from one to fourteen years, and asked if he had anything to say, the prisoner staggered to his feet, groping for words. "I've been hurtin' people—I don't want to be in prison before I die. I don't hurt any one. I want to stay there."

When the court informed him his sentence would be fixed by the prison board, he slumped to his seat. In the courtroom were county officials, members of the April 19th Legion, to which the prisoner belonged, and a few women—prisoners of Mrs. Wheeler, who was charged with the killing of her husband.

He heard him tell of being in San Quentin on a check change preferred at El Centro and of his services overseas with the One Hundred and Forty-ninth Artillery, Rainbow Division. Perfunctory in answering other questions, his voice showed pride in his Army service was mentioned.

The trip to Folsom will be delayed while Wheeler adjusts his business affairs in Santa Ana.

LOVED HIS DOG

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
SAN DIEGO, April 27.—Dependence over the loss of a pet dog, his sole companion for many years, is believed to have led to the suicide of Paul E. Schultz on his ranch near Lakeside.

Discovery of Schultz's body in his house was made by E. P. Fitch and W. Z. Kuhner, neighbors, as a result of a note left on the porch of the Fitch residence, asking him to tell Kuhner to go to the Schultz home. A letter there asked Kuhner to notify relatives.

Schultz is said to have brooded over the death of his dog, which some one had killed. He had attempted to find the dog's slayer for months, vowing to kill the man if he found him. The dog had been given to the rancher some years ago and had been trained by him as a hunter, and as such is said to have been one of the best in the country.

CONTRACT A SECRET

Judge Rules in Favor of Committee Staging Orange County Dry Raids

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

SANTA ANA, April 27.—An asserted contract between E. S. Ward, dry law detective, and a so-called "citizens' committee" relative to compensation for raids conducted in Orange county, last November, will not have to be made public, Superior Judge R. T. Williams ruled today in trial of an injunction suit brought by C. Stanley Chapman of Fullerton to prevent that city from paying Ward's bill for $2500.

The instrument was brought into court and though Attorney E. J. Marks, representing Chapman, told the court he believed it would show a group of citizens, including William Starbuck, Rev. Leon Meyers and Amheim Ku Klux Klan leaders, hired the detectives and would be reimbursed in case Orange county commissioners paid Ward $11,250, Judge Williams held introduction of the purported agreement was immaterial.

The case was submitted on briefs at its conclusion today.

Even if the contract was signed, as Chapman would have merely a guarantee for wages, Judge Williams ruled, adding that such an agreement would be void. Under presentment of the bill by former City Marshal Arthur Eells, who admitted he authorized the detective work, the Board of Trustees of Fullerton authorized its payment, but the check was stopped when Chapman, prominent Fullerton business man, secured a temporary injunction.

Ward succeeded in becoming an intervenor, as a joint defendant, and filed a cross suit to compel payment by the city of his bill, which stated the total expense of the raid, $11,250, was to be apportioned among four cities. The Fullerton claim was the only one presented.

SHERIFFS GUARD ALL HIGHWAYS

Kern County Officials Organize Search for Man Accused of Kidnaping

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

BAKERFIELD, April 27.—Composed of deputy sheriffs and citizens of the Rosedale district, a posse is combing Kern county and keeping watch on all exits in an effort to capture a man who last week kidnaped a 13-year-old girl and a 16-year-old boy, both residents of Rosedale and students at the Rosedale Grammar School.

A warrant has been sworn out at the local Sheriff's office charging R. I. Branch with a statutory offense in connection with the kidnaping. Officials of the county have issued bulletins to the police departments and sheriffs throughout the State in an effort to arrest Branch, who is said to be driving either a Chevrolet touring car or a Ford coupe.

According to the Sheriff's office, the two children did not return to their home after school was dismissed the night of their disappearance. Branch, who is asserted to have been intimate with the girl, was declared to have disappeared that evening, taking with him his own daughter and the other children, according to the officials in charge of the case.

Branch is said to own valuable property in the Wheeler Ridge and Maricopa oil districts besides other holdings in the Rosedale district. He is said to have sold some of his property and to have a carload of goods prior to his disappearance.

SLOW BUYING IN COPPER MARKET

Curtailment of Production Inevitable
Principal Weakness is in Foreign Countries

Surplus Stock of Metal Decreases

BY CHARLES F. WILLIS.

Editor, "Athens Mining Journal"

Curtailment of production of copper seems to be inevitable if that metal is to recover from its present weak position and low price. It is a well known fact that the principal weakness of the market is in the European countries. The figures show that we are more than in surplus of copper production and the tendency, during the last several months has been to increase production. This increase being based upon anticipated demands from European countries.

Europe, however, is buying and will probably continue to buy on a hand-to-mouth basis just as long as they can, and though copper is slight to fulfill all their needs. The consumer has every advantage for only about one-third of the surplus of copper is refined and ready for the market, while two-thirds is in the form of blisters, in process of refining, etc. The consumer can see three months ahead, while the producer can only guess at the needs.

SURPLUS STOCK

While the surplus stock of refined copper did decrease during the first quarter of 1925 by 14,000 tons it was not due to excessive consumption but due to the slowing up of refineries and the total figures actually show an increased surplus. Surplus stock of copper, including blister copper in process of refining in North and South America as of April 1, was 232,774 tons, an increase of 25,500 tons, or 7 per cent during the last twelve months. Of this total only 123,343 tons were refined or metal deliverable to consumers. This increase came at various times during the year, the first quarter of 1925 accounting for but 10,000 tons.

It is natural that the mines would desire to increase production, as costs can be lowered in many cases. In some cases, it is only possible to produce at a profit with the present price of the metal. If full capacity is maintained, but with the production running consistently over capacity, there will be no relief immediately in sight, it would only be good sense to curtail for the time being, take a loss if necessary, and to increase production after the demand actually comes.

It would not be unexpected to get an announcement of some curtailment of production from the southwestern mines.

Such a curtailment would be but a temporary expedient need not be large to overcome the slight difference and it is not likely that the mines will curtail. Nothing will bring the price of the metal back to where it belongs and where it is necessary to maintain it more than having the production somewhat less than consumption.

MARCH WORST YET

From the point of view of production, the month of March was the worst yet, 141,100 tons, or 12-126 tons greater than the highest month of last year. October, and 20,000 tons greater than the monthly average for the last year. The monthly average for 1924 was 79,553 tons, for 1923, 113,016 tons, for 1922, 121,623 tons, while for the first three months of 1925 we have an average of 139,524 with March capping them all by a goodly margin.

With this amount of copper in sight, it is hardly to be expected to have the consumer food the market with copper. The mines of the United States are largely responsible for the increase in the production of copper in the United States. The production has not changed materially, despite of all that is said regarding the Belgian Congo, they are maintaining a production of about 8000 tons monthly and much of the increased production and the big production is in prospect of the future rather than the present.

In the United States, the increase is not confined to the production of mines, as they seem to be increasing generally. The vein mines are responsible for the largest percentage increase.

There seems to be no question as to the future of the copper industry. It is in a position of great strength at the present time. The question as to whether a fair price is to be had for the metal, is a question of the mines and not as to whether the price of copper will come next summer or next year. The position of copper for the long term is good or better than it has been, but the question of when is largely dependent upon the April production figures.

If the announcement regarding curtailment is forthcoming, as is anticipated, we can expect to see a reaction in the copper market very shortly and a better price and it will not take any great time in production to accomplish this.

DETROIT, April 27.—The earnings of Dodge Brothers, Inc., for the first six months of 1925 before taxes are paid, are estimated at $14,000,000, not including approximately $600,000 profit from the sale of real estate, according to an announcement made today by Frederick J. Haynes, president.

The bankers for the Dodge Brothers, in commenting on the statement of earnings as given out at the company offices in Detroit yesterday, pointed out that the results of $14,000,000 for the first six months were at the annual rate of $24 a share in the preferred stock and $7 a share on the common, after deduction for interest and Federal taxes.

ELECTRICAL SECURITIES SHOW GAIN

Total Sales for Quarter Highest in History of Industry

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

NEW YORK, April 27.—Sales of electric light and power securities in the United States, exclusive of local sales made by companies to their customers and employees, totaled $362,767,000 for the first quarter of 1925, and exceeded all previous quarter records in the history of the industry. Electrical World statistics indicate that reports show that since 1920 financing of the electrical industry has been a record.

In the first quarter of 1924, sales of electric light and power securities totaled $200,303,700, with the year's total at $824,450,800. The total for the first three months of 1925 was $324,335,350, with the quarter's total at $824,450,800. For the three months ending March, 1925, sales amounted to $35,122,090, with the year's figure at $824,450,800. In 1920 the first quarter's total was $11,280,940, and the year's sum was $324,374,740.

"One of the outstanding facts concerning the financing of the electrical industry," the report says, "is that fully 90 per cent of the money borrowed is to take care of growth within the industry, and this is also largely true of the telephone industry. With the blider industry, however, such as the steam railroad, a very large proportion of the financial requirements is to take care of depreciation and obsolescence. The electric light and power industry is so young and its growth has been so rapid that the depreciation has not arrived when comparatively large amounts must be spent for new equipment necessitated by depreciation."

Gets New Well

The Petroleum Midway Company yesterday completed its Dorothy Freed well in the northern part of the Rosecrans field, in the Athens area, is producing oil with a higher percentage of light constituents, than any other well yet completed in that field, and probably higher than any other well yet completed in the State, according to officials of the company.

The well began flowing gas last Friday, but not practical on gravity feed at this time, according to field reports. By Sunday the well was flowing approximately 14,000,000 cubic feet of gas, with some fluid. Yesterday officials of the company reported the well to be making approximately 100 barrels of oil, of which 58 per cent was gasoline, and of the residue, 77 per cent was kerosene. The well is being drilled to a depth of 3750 feet.

The Associated Oil Company's Vickers No. 2 in the Baldwin Hills field, its second completion with 2566 barrels, in the northern part of the Rosecrans field, in the Athens area, is producing oil with a higher percentage of light constituents, than any other well yet completed in that field, and probably higher than any other well yet completed in the State, according to officials of the company.

CONDITIONS IN BUSINESS ARE BETTER

Building Contract Awards Running Far Ahead of a Year Ago

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

Moody's weekly review of financial conditions in its current issue reports in part: "Encouraging trade returns are now coming in. Building contract awards are running far ahead of a year ago, whereas until recently they were behind. Building costs, which fell a little in February, are now rising again, which may be taken as a reflection of the demand for building materials."

"March bank exchanges showed gains in almost every section. Identical and interest payments are running well ahead of a year ago. The money market remains in a very comfortable position. Thus it is clearer than ever that one should adhere to a constructive attitude."

"The securities market outlook, however, is influenced by the large paper profits still in the hands of all those who bought any time in 1923 and 1924. Profit taking by these investors might cause further reactions, but in such an event carefully selected issues would still look like good investment purchases."

"Motor companies have thus far not sold as many cars and trucks as last year, but sales and production are picking up. Selected manufacturers of motor securities look attractive, but the others do not."

"Rubber company operations are on a large scale, but public speculation are higher, and profits per year are thinner than they were last year. Higher prices for three years needed, and very likely these prices may be advanced later on."

PROVEN LIVESAVER

Up to the present time there are known to have been sixteen aviators whose lives were saved by the successful operation of the Army parachute. Two of them were killed in the operation of the parachute. The Army parachute is a proven lifesaver.

The service parachute has a tremendous strength. Each of the four small silk shroud lines is tested to withstand a pull of 400 pounds. The parachute is a proven lifesaver.

ALL MADE OF SILK

The parachute is made of carefully chosen silk and has a diameter of twenty-four feet. The total weight when packed is about eighteen pounds. The shroud lines are of extremely fine silk, making a parachute of the lightest weight and the same quality is said to be available in any place else in the world.

The method by which the parachute is released is interesting and unfamiliar to the majority of people not actively engaged in aviation. In addition to the main parachute, the pack contains a smaller one about three feet in diameter. When the rip cord is pulled this smaller parachute automatically opens with umbrella-like springs, and it in turn draws the large one out of the pack into the air.

PROVES VALUE OF PARACHUTE

Army Tests Establish Worth of Safety Device

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

JAIL BREAK OF SLAYER FOILED

Ed Montijo Captured Within Sight of Freedom

Murderer Saves Bars to Flee Custody of County

Missing Several Hours After Going to Bathroom

With only a few minutes between him and freedom, Ed Montijo, convicted murderer, was found yesterday in the County Jail and returned to his cell. Montijo, missing several hours, was discovered in the prison laundry, concealed on top of a huge pile of blankets. He had sawed through two of three bars of an opening between the laundry and the jail carpenter shop. From the carpenter shop he could easily have made his way to the street.

According to Jailer Crouchorn, Montijo slipped into the laundry while he was supposed to be taking a bath. His absence was not at once discovered and when he was found to be missing a thorough search of the jail was organized. After hours of hunting he was located lying snugly on the blanket pile. He made no resistance.

The jailer has started an investigation to determine how the saws got into his possession. Montijo, with Louis Perry and Tom Bailey, was found guilty of the murder of Patrolman Glen Bond, Los Angeles police officer, during an attempted hold-up of the Hoover and Seventh street branch of the Pacific Southwest Trust and Savings Bank February 20, 1924. All three were sentenced to be hanged, sentence being passed June 9. An appeal was taken and the higher courts sustained the conviction. The residence of the three men will come up during the appeal. Perry and Bailey were in no way concerned in the attempt at escape, so far as the jailer could determine.

GARAGE WORKER HELD UP
Howard Key, attendant at a garage at 1533 West Seventh street, was held up by a lone bandit early yesterday and locked in a closet in the garage. The bandit took $150 from his victim and departed after cutting the telephone wires.

'ACID BATH' TRIAL WILL OPEN TODAY

Darby Day, Jr. Will be in Court to Press Charges Against Wife

Darby Day, Jr., scion of wealth and social position, is expected to meet his wife today for the first time since the "acid bath" episode in Beverly Hills on the night of February 23, last.

It will not be a meeting of effusive demonstration, however, as husband and wife will face each other in the court of Judge Hahn, he as the star prosecution witness in an attempt to prove that his young and pretty wife, Bernice L. Day, married him for life insurance money in his face as the outcome of a family quarrel.

If young Day is in court, and Dep. Dist. Atty. McCartney, who is prosecuting, said yesterday that he will be his first public appearance since the affair which brought about the family estrangement, the filing of criminal charges against Mrs. Day and her younger sister, Carolyn Lundstrom, and institution of divorce proceedings in Chicago by Day.

Miss Lundstrom will be in court today as a co-defendant, charged with aiding and abetting in the asserted acid-bathing.

For the greater portion of the time since the break between the Days, the husband has been in bed recovering from the burns he suffered. The text of the divorce complaint filed by Day termed the "acid bath" the culmination of a series of family quarrels. On the night of February 23, the complaint charges, Mrs. Day lured her husband from his home on Alpine Drive, Beverly Hills, into an automobile in front of the house. Once there, it is charged, she threw the contents of a bottle of acid in his face and over his shoulder.

Mrs. Day, through her attorney, Charles B. Stewart, Jr., will fight the charges on the ground that the acid was spilled accidentally. Following the scene on Alpine Drive, Mrs. Day attempted to take her own life by swallowing a quantity of veronal, and was a patient in the Hollywood hospital for several days recuperating.

Both she and her sister, Miss Lundstrom, have been at liberty on bail since their arraignment on the charges two months ago.

BOYS TO RULE IN CITY TODAY

Important Positions to be Filled by Students

Nurmi Thrills Scholars at Manual Arts High

Tomorrow to be Known as Industrial Day

This is Citizenship Day of Boys' Week and the youngsters will sit in the places of the high and mighty in Los Angeles. They will rule in the offices of Mayor, chairman of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, Chief of Police, Sheriff, Postmaster, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Juvenile Court judge, chief of traffic police and on the benches of three civil and three police judges.

Dick McKay, a senior in Los Angeles High School, will be Mayor for a day. Yesterday he was principal of his high school. He is president of its student body.

Yesterday school authorities turned over the principalships and teacher duties in the twenty-three high schools and thirteen junior high schools to boys.

NURMI IS ATTRACTION
In schools visited the youthful authorities were ruling and directing conferences and directing assemblies with all the seriousness of men of today instead of the men of tomorrow.

Nurmi, the great Finn runner, was a superattraction at Manual Arts High School yesterday when he acted as the day's Mayor.

The boys took the air last night at each of the radio broadcasting stations in the city and, theoretically at least, were masters over their dads and mothers in households yesterday.

JUVENILE HALL
There is to be no oversight of less fortunate youths. Today at Juvenile Hall, under sponsorship of a special committee headed by Probation Officer Earle W. Rumsey, there will be an entertainment given jointly by the Boy Scouts of Los Angeles and students from Loyola College. The Scout band of fifty pieces will give a concert, and under the leadership of Scout Executive E. B. DeGroot, a series of stunts and skits are to be put on. The Loyola boys will give a minstrel show.

Six divisions of the Y.M.C.A. boys, including the Y-12, Y-13, Y-14, Y-15, Y-16, Y-17, Y-18, Y-19, Y-20, Y-21, Y-22, Y-23, Y-24, Y-25, Y-26, Y-27, Y-28, Y-29, Y-30, Y-31, Y-32, Y-33, Y-34, Y-35, Y-36, Y-37, Y-38, Y-39, Y-40, Y-41, Y-42, Y-43, Y-44, Y-45, Y-46, Y-47, Y-48, Y-49, Y-50, Y-51, Y-52, Y-53, Y-54, Y-55, Y-56, Y-57, Y-58, Y-59, Y-60, Y-61, Y-62, Y-63, Y-64, Y-65, Y-66, Y-67, Y-68, Y-69, Y-70, Y-71, Y-72, Y-73, Y-74, Y-75, Y-76, Y-77, Y-78, Y-79, Y-80, Y-81, Y-82, Y-83, Y-84, Y-85, Y-86, Y-87, Y-88, Y-89, Y-90, Y-91, Y-92, Y-93, Y-94, Y-95, Y-96, Y-97, Y-98, Y-99, Y-100.

"Judge" Bob Moore of John Burroughs Junior High School, stole a march on other boy officials by assuming his duties on the bench yesterday afternoon. Notified of the fact that there would be a session of the Juvenile Court today, his youthful honor appeared at Judge Archibald's chambers shortly after noon, was introduced by his sponsor, Dr. P. J. Barone of the boys' work department of the Catholic Bureau of Charities, and shortly afterward was "presiding" over the destinies of numerous juvenile delinquents.

STAFF FOR CITY
Accompanying McKay to the Mayor's office will be Martin S. Hauser, chairman of the Council for the Promotion of Boys.

At the fire department headquarters an elaborate function has been planned by Fire Chief Scott when the new "chief" Lawrence Houston of Manual Arts, arrives with J. J. Frauerfelder, president of the Los Angeles Club, Chief Scott in the presence of a number of battalion chiefs, will turn over his official automobile and put "Chief" Houston on the job for the first fire call. This reception is to be conducted at 10 o'clock.

Capt. George S. McClary of the juvenile department will introduce Howard Williams of Manual Arts, now the police official, to Chief Heath and Norman H. Ives of Polytechnic, to Capt. Cleveland

Senior Classmen Direct Schools

Scholars Act as Principal
Above, Dick McKay, Los Angeles High School senior, president of its student body, who acted as principal of the school yesterday. Today he will be Mayor of Los Angeles. Photo shows him dictating to his secretary for the day—Josephine Catlin, senior. Below, Bill Stewart, senior, principal for the day at Manual Arts High School, shown with Nurmi, right.

Heath of the traffic department, the two simultaneously resigning. E. G. Judah will sponsor Hilton H. McCabe of Hollywood, when he takes Boyle Workman's place as president of the City Council. Public Defender Melvyn Paries is sponsor for Alex McKinnon, boy Sheriff, and the three new county justices. In a great school of 3000 students we had only one last term—and that boy is back! When we had a school of 100, we thought it pretty good if not more than 5 per cent were "bad." Today I could not concede that more than 2 per cent of our 3000 are not a credit to their school."

SUPERIOR STANDARDS
That is how Mr. Housh went on for two solid hours, proving to me that there is a vastly superior standard of morality, good manners, responsibility, and attainment among our modern girls and boys. Never once did he utter any "good old days."

"Our Los Angeles girls are as fine as any in the world," he declared. "Come, I want you to meet Betty Price. Betty takes Miss Wolcott's place as vice-principal today."

We found Betty serene in her place of honor—even after interviewing some of the names who wanted to fuss about children, even after settling the arrangements for the vaudeville show and after passing up suggested innovations at the conference.

Mr. Housh says that most of the suggested innovations offered by the children this week are genuine efficiency measures.

"We shall try them all out," added Mr. Housh.

Here is a man, who has been principal in this school for thirty years, was a teacher many years before that, who has witnessed all the changing times that are supposed to have demoralized home, parents and children and he emphatically insists that the boys and girls of today are better, finer, truer and more honorable.

Hurray, and so on all of us.

LOCAL CO-OPERATIVE CLUB HOLDS ELECTION
F. G. HOFFMEYER, SELECTED HEAD OF ORGANIZATION FOR COMING YEAR

The annual election of officers of the Los Angeles Co-operative Club yesterday at the Baltimore resulted as follows: F. G. Hoffmeyer, president; Robert Weaver, vice-president; Ted Kennard, secretary; treasurer: C. G. Pyle, sergeant-at-arms, and Dr. J. David Beatty, Dr. Murray McNeil and J. W. Spradling, directors. A handsome clock and cane were presented to F. G. Hoffmeyer, retiring president, and clock and pipe to the retiring secretary, A. D. MacLeod.

"Pus" Halbritter won the club's loving cup for the best program put on during the year. The donors, MacLeod and MacFarlane, offered a similar cup for the best program the coming year.

Judge Arthur Keetch and F. G. Hoffmeyer were elected delegates to the national convention of Co-operative Clubs at Tulsa, Okla., May 17 to 20. Two delegates will also be sent to the convention from the newly organized Co-operative Club of Long Beach.

Information concerning the whereabouts of William E. Doyle, years of age, and John F. Doyle, 42, being sought by their father, Francis Doyle, who is in the General Hospital at Port Angeles, Wash. A letter received by The Times yesterday, William Doyle was reported killed in Oregon some time ago but since it is said to have been received to be in Los Angeles, any information should be sent to Dr. J. H. Taylor, General Hospital, Port Angeles, Wash.

ACTRESS LURED BY BLOSSOMS

The scent of fresh California orange blossoms, which had been packed in ice and placed in her dressing-room in Allentown, Pa., has caused Jane Cowl, famous actress, to abandon her plans for a European theatrical invasion and to announce that she will come to California for an engagement at the Playhouse Theatre.

The unique method of winning Miss Cowl's visit to the Southland was adopted by Louis O. Macdonell, manager of the Playhouse. Mr. Macdonell left Los Angeles some weeks ago with the avowed purpose of bringing Miss Cowl to Los Angeles for an engagement at his theater. He had bunches of orange blossoms packed in ice and took them with him.

He overtook Miss Cowl and her company at Williamsport and accompanied her to Allentown, where on three successive nights he left the fresh orange blossoms in her dressing-room. The blossoms did their work and Miss Cowl capitulated. She will appear at the Playhouse in her greatest success, "Home and Juliet."

Today, May 11, Miss Cowl will live at Beverly Hills during the remainder of the summer.

CHAMBER PLANS ENTRY FOR MAZATLAN SHOW

An invitation has been received by the Chamber of Commerce to enter a Los Angeles exhibit in the coming exposition to be held in Mazatlan, Mex., from May 17 to June 17. A framed skyline picture of the business district of Los Angeles, 5 by 10 feet, has been prepared by William Fowler of the field service and exposition department as the chamber exhibit. Two other Los Angeles organizations will be represented in the exposition. The Brimstone Paint Company and the Smoot-Holman Company have arranged to send Louis Coutelle to handle their exhibits. While in Mexico he will also take charge of the chamber's display.

BOY SWALLOWS POISON

Life of Hollywood Child Saved by Quick Action

Quick action by doctors of the Dickey and Case Emergency Station of Hollywood Boulevard saved the life Sunday night of Manuel Converse Ayulo, 3 1/2 years of age, of 1234 Fountain avenue, who was rushed to the hospital by Hollywood police after he had swallowed several bicloride of mercury tablets in the belief that they were candy. A report made by police who investigated stated that the poison tablets had accidentally been left in reach of the child. Doctors at the hospital applied a stomach pump and extracted the poison from the child's body.

EMBEZZLEMENT CASE OF LAWYER CONTINUED

The preliminary hearing of Thomas F. Calhoun, attorney, charged with embezzling various sums which had been given to him for investment by clients, was continued yesterday by Justice Wood until May 11. It is asserted that the attorney retained the money he received from the investors and applied it to his personal uses.

WIFE SAYS MATE LEFT WHEN TOLD TO WORK

As long as Ida James Wallace paid the bills, George F. Wallace was content to dwell with her in amity, but when she lightened up the purse strings and coldly intimated that he might start working any time, he left. In a huff, he told Judge Holter yesterday.

"Evidently a sensitive soul," commented Holter, as he awarded Mrs. Wallace a decree of divorce.

"In regard to what Mountain Valley Water did for my wife wish to advise that we believe that it saved her life. Our family physician told her—that there was no hope for her, being in the last stages of Bright's disease. As a last resort he stated her case to a medical bureau in Chicago, Ill., by whom he was ordered to send his patient to Mountain Valley Springs, Hot Springs, Ark. We followed this advice and after having spent four months there could return home greatly improved. have been made that Dr. J. D.

Raymond B. Dunlap, director of child welfare for the Board of Ed ucation, talked of children in the trude Auld Thomas, Esther Ray Dawn and Mr. Robanoff, and violin solos of Helen Violet Muchnie, 11 years of age, was well received.

Mrs. Emma P. Durbin, director of oral hygiene for the county health department, discussed the importance of the baby's teeth, and child's health.

During the week Miss Thelma McCarthy and Miss Margaret Mul roy will be in charge of the dental booth from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., and demonstrate the care of baby presented a playlet called "The Bad Molar."

Demonstration booths showing suitable clothing for the infant, im menu, care of the teeth, and other factors in the child's life, are a part of the week's educational pro

Today's program will open at 10 o'clock with the children's orches

Brief addresses by Alexander
Fleisher of the Metropolitan Life

HALE URGES LARGE VOTE FOR MUSHET

Head of City Employees Lauds Councilman Who is Controller Candidate

Municipal employees yesterday were urged by Robert T. Hale, president of the City Employees' Benevolent and Protective Association, to vote for the election at the primaries May 5, of Councilman Mushet to the office of City Controller. The candidacy of Mr. Mushet for this office was strongly endorsed in a letter from Mr. Hale. In the letter Mr. Hale said he has known Mr. Mushet for more than twenty-five years and pointed to the fact that one of his best recommendations to the voters for his election as Controller was his long and faithful service in behalf of the best interests of the people of Los Angeles.

Mr. Hale's letter, in part, follows: "I desire to say that all employees of this city from street sweepers to the chiefs of the police and fire departments know that Mr. Mushet has always worked to increase the efficiency of their departments and did his utmost to provide other advantages for them. I recall when the city employees had great difficulty in receiving and cashing their pay checks. This was all changed after Mr. Mushet's election as City Controller."

POLITICS THE WATCHMAN

Trend of Political Thought and Action
BY THE EDITOR OF HIS BEAT

One week from today the candidates, particularly those in the Councilmanic districts, will be busy getting out the vote. General predictions are that a heavy vote will be cast, because district representation enables Councilmanic candidates to comb their district thoroughly and bring to the polls hundreds who usually fail to vote at the primaries. Out of a registration of 379,000 the vote cast next Tuesday may reach 150,000.

"One of the great causes of traffic delay is torn up streets," Bert L. Farmer, candidate for the City Council told a Sixth Councilmanic district meeting last night. "A large part of this can be avoided as frequently streets are torn up to permit the laying or relaying of pipes and conduits and this work can and should be rushed to completion."

"One week to a block should be all the time required for the laying of conduits or sewer lines, and any longer time is a waste because torn up streets delay traffic. A new system of handling this problem must be devised so responsibility will rest with one source. Further, after the trench is closed and the street resurfaced the work often proves unsatisfactory. Depressions in the surface often cause serious wrecks and some plan of ending this must be devised."

Thomas L. Dodge, candidate for Councilman from the Ninth Councilmanic District, will be tendered a reception by his campaign committee at Roosevelt high tomorrow night. Young men entertaining will be furnished through the courtesy of Merton Snyder, one of the vice-presidents of the Association. Tonight Mr. Dodge will be guest speaker at a meeting of the German-American League and also be present for the last day of the great music festival in Hollywood.

The Apartment House Association of Los Angeles County, Inc., has issued a statement over the signature of W. T. Maddox, president, stating that the Association "is taking no active part in the Councilmanic campaign in the city of Los Angeles and no endorsements whatever have been made or will be made for any candidate."

A petition signed by several hundred ex-service men of the Harbor district who saw active service overseas during the World War is being circulated in the Fifteenth Councilmanic district asking for the election of James H. Dodson, Jr., who is past commander of the San Pedro post of the American Legion.

AUTO STAGE EXEMPTION IS ILLEGAL

State Supreme Justices
Decide Against Farmers' Clause of Law

Officials of the State Railroad Commission yesterday received word that the State Supreme Court has declared unconstitutional the so-called "farmer's exemption" amendment to the Auto Stage Act. This information was contained in a telegram from Carl A. Wheat, attorney of the commission, to Examiner Williams, in charge of the Los Angeles office.

The court also issued a peremptory writ of mandate directing the Railroad Commission to take complete jurisdiction of farm products carried by auto stages and trucks. The Auto Stage Act required all common carriers to make application to the commission for a permit, stating that a public necessity exists. Under an amendment, movement of perishable products, farm implements, and farm products generally were exempt, although it was necessary to apply to the State Railroad Commission for a certificate.

Local officials of the commission stated that 200 operators will be affected in Southern California by the decision.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR FATHER HARNETT

Commemorative services for the late Rev. Mr. Patrick Harnett, who was Vicar-General of the Diocese of Los Angeles and San Diego and for twenty-five years pastor of St. William's Cathedral, will be conducted by Rev. Mr. John Cawley at the cathedral at 9 a.m. today according to announcement made yesterday by Father John J. Devlin, secretary to Bishop Cantwell. The service will mark the first anniversary of Father Harnett's death.

The body of B. Genes, a native of Dorpat, Esthonia, who died at the home of his brother, Rabbi H. Genes, at 1523 East Twentieth street, will be started back to Esthonia today. Funeral services will be conducted at the Adath Israel Synagogue a few hours before the body is placed on the train for the long journey. Mr. Genes was stricken suddenly. He had intended to go to Palestine from this city.

Approval for Proposed Port Viaduct Asked

A petition asking the State Railroad Commission to approve a division of cost for the proposed viaduct which will carry Anaheim Road over Dominguez slough and give the railroads a gateway into the harbor district was filed yesterday.

The petition sets the cost of the proposed viaduct at approximately $325,000. This is divided into two equal parts, one for the construction of the viaduct itself, and the other half for the building of the docks underneath through which the railroads will enter the harbor district. As proposed in the petition, Long Beach, the Board of Harbor Commissioners, the city of Los Angeles and the Union Pacific will each bear 12 1/2 per cent of the cost of building the docks, and the remaining half, or $267,500, for use in building the upper portion of the viaduct, to be borne by Los Angeles city and county.

The construction of the viaduct and docks would enable the railroads to connect up with the belt line at the harbor, forming a unified system. It was stated.

BLABON'S Linoleum

How genuine linoleum is made Blabon's Linoleum is made of finely ground cork and oxidized linseed oil intimately blended, and firmly attached to a support base. In solid and Plain Linoleum the pattern and colors extend clear through to the top layer. In Battishell Linoleum the pattern and colors are printed on the linoleum body with heavy oil paints.

The handsome law office of Clement, Donahue and Irwin in the new Packard Building, have Blabon floors of plain gray linoleum. Blabon's plain black linoleum.

How to lay linoleum in offices The right way to lay linoleum is to cement it over a layer of builders' sanding felt paper, which should not be more than 1/4 inch thick. This comes in the form of a pre-cut, pre-glued, and pre-stretched mat, and is practical, and prolongs the life of the floor.

MUSIC ARTISTS TO BE FEATURED

Hollywood Woman's Club to Hear Concert

Bay City Group is Booked to Give Program

Luncheon for Discussion of Drama to Precede

BY MYRA NYE

Outstanding in importance for the season in club circles is the concert by the Woman's Club of Hollywood tomorrow, when the organization will present the San Francisco Chamber Music Society. The committee considers itself fortunate to bring to Hollywood this famous group, which includes in its personnel Louis Persinger, director and violinist, a pupil formerly of Ysaye and Thibaud; Louis Ford, violinist; Walter Fernald, who as "cellist" has been soloist with the Wiesbaden Royal Orchestra, Philharmonic Orchestra of Berlin and the Chicago Symphony; Nathan Firestone, violinist who has played under the direction of Saint-Saens, who gives him high praise; and Elias Hecht, founder of the society in 1918, who ranks among the first ensemble fusts of America. Prior to 1912 the latter played with the Concert Verein Quartet of Munich, a distinction never previously accorded to any American.

The roster of names of those who have appeared with this organization as soloists in their concert reads like a musical Blue Book. Among them are Cortot, Thibaud, Godowsky, Rubinstein, Myra Hess, Dehnany, Ney, Legner, Gabrilowitch, the London String Quartet and many others. Virroque Baker will preside at the drama luncheon preceding the concert. Miss Baker has arranged a program that promises a comprehensive discussion of drama from its various angles. Ferdinand Pinney Earle will discuss the drama from the producer's point of view; Reginald Pole, who has taken the part of Judas Iscariot in the Rubric's "Play" for the last three years, will describe the position of the legitimate production, and a prominent actor not yet chosen, from Hollywood will discuss the viewpoint of the player.

Significant for audiences is the fact that all five members of the society are Americans, having won distinction in their own right and abroad by their unique and artistic programs of chamber music. The ensemble is different from the usual string-instrument group. It is free from the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, which organization the men are members during the winter season.

Verse Writers' Club Last night at the meeting of the Verse Writers' Club it was announced that the poem submitted to the well-known English poet, Robert Nichols, for criticism, he had given his opinion to the following in order of merit: Joy Bennett with her poem, "In the Night," Emilia Timmerhoff, "Thought Poem," (Japanese Hokku); Aurelia Reid, "Long Beach Hokku"; Frances Walman, "I," Geraldine Seelenka, "The Dream Tonight," and Snow Longley, "Light Months." The last three were regarded by the critic as of equal merit. At a former meeting Mr. Nichols gave a lecture on poetry in general and spoke particularly of the Japanese "Hokku" form, the Elizabethan forms and fifteenth-century poetry.

Of Interest to Women.

THE LAST WORD.

BY ALMA WHITAKER

The Crime Wave in Fairyland

Of course, I probably read them a hundred times when I was little and innocent. But having read them over again last night in order to polish up on correct detail, I was appalled to discover their total lack of principle.

How on earth did they ever raise acrimoniously honest men and women on such tales as "Puss in Boots" and "Jack and the Beanstalk"? Why, Puss was the most preposterously unscrupulous person and made the fortune of the Miller's Son and married him off to the lovely princess by the most shameless tricks.

It was, you may recall, by masquerading our not-so-imperfect selves, rascals and pretending he was drowning, that the Miller's Son won the sympathy and a royal suit of clothes from the King. And it was by magnificently claiming to own the estate of the wicked Ogre that he claimed eligibility to marry the deceived princess.

Also it was by fattering and coaxing the Ogre to let him steal his sheep, that the Miller's Son secured the Ogre's help in the destruction of the latter's castle. Utterly dastardly all round—and ardently justified on the score that the Miller's Son was a nice poor boy! Now really, I ask you?

As for Jack of Beanstalk fame—he was nothing but a lazy despicable little thief, whom the Fairy encouraged to rob the Giant, steal his goose, his money and his magic harp, shamefully violate the hospitality of the Ogre's kind wife, deceive his poor old mother—all because Jack's father had been a good man who did kind deeds.

But, on the very sketchy understanding of the fairy tales, I am having an awful time trying to expurgate reform and follow in papa's generous footsteps—after he was rich enough for it to entail no possible

Of course, I probably read them a hundred times when I was little and innocent. But having read them over again last night in order to polish up on correct detail, I was appalled to discover their total lack of principle.

How on earth did they ever raise acrimoniously honest men and women on such tales as "Puss in Boots" and "Jack and the Beanstalk"? Why, Puss was the most preposterously unscrupulous person and made the fortune of the Miller's Son and married him off to the lovely princess by the most shameless tricks.

It was, you may recall, by masquerading our not-so-imperfect selves, rascals and pretending he was drowning, that the Miller's Son won the sympathy and a royal suit of clothes from the King. And it was by magnificently claiming to own the estate of the wicked Ogre that he claimed eligibility to marry the deceived princess.

Also it was by fattering and coaxing the Ogre to let him steal his sheep, that the Miller's Son secured the Ogre's help in the destruction of the latter's castle. Utterly dastardly all round—and ardently justified on the score that the Miller's Son was a nice poor boy! Now really, I ask you?

As for Jack of Beanstalk fame—he was nothing but a lazy despicable little thief, whom the Fairy encouraged to rob the Giant, steal his goose, his money and his magic harp, shamefully violate the hospitality of the Ogre's kind wife, deceive his poor old mother—all because Jack's father had been a good man who did kind deeds.

But, on the very sketchy understanding of the fairy tales, I am having an awful time trying to expurgate reform and follow in papa's generous footsteps—after he was rich enough for it to entail no possible

the drama luncheon preceding the concert. Miss Baker has arranged a program that promises a comprehensive discussion of drama from its various angles. Ferdinand Pinney Earle will discuss the drama from the producer's point of view; Reginald Pole, who has taken the part of Judas Iscariot in the Rubric's "Play" for the last three years, will describe the position of the legitimate production, and a prominent actor not yet chosen, from Hollywood will discuss the viewpoint of the player.

Significant for audiences is the fact that all five members of the society are Americans, having won distinction in their own right and abroad by their unique and artistic programs of chamber music. The ensemble is different from the usual string-instrument group. It is free from the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, which organization the men are members during the winter season.

Verse Writers' Club Last night at the meeting of the Verse Writers' Club it was announced that the poem submitted to the well-known English poet, Robert Nichols, for criticism, he had given his opinion to the following in order of merit: Joy Bennett with her poem, "In the Night," Emilia Timmerhoff, "Thought Poem," (Japanese Hokku); Aurelia Reid, "Long Beach Hokku"; Frances Walman, "I," Geraldine Seelenka, "The Dream Tonight," and Snow Longley, "Light Months." The last three were regarded by the critic as of equal merit. At a former meeting Mr. Nichols gave a lecture on poetry in general and spoke particularly of the Japanese "Hokku" form, the Elizabethan forms and fifteenth-century poetry.

Scorpioid Club A surprise program is in order for the Scorpioid Club meeting today in the Music Room of the Billmore. Members only are expected and Mrs. Gertrude Maynard, the president, is urging a 100 per cent attendance. The meeting will begin promptly at 12:15 p.m., while lunch will be served at 12 m.

Screen Actress Tells of Rough Tactics of Mate

Cave-man tactics on the part of her real-estate operator husband failed to rouse a romantic response in the breast of Alma Bennett, film actress, according to her divorce suit filed yesterday against Fred Bennett.

Charging him with extreme cruelty, Bennett declares his conduct on one occasion became so "riotous" that police had to be called. She accused him of taking her from her bed and dragging her on a rough sidewalk to his car and with calling her "vile" names. They were married January 3, last, and separated the 23rd inst.

The frock is so simple that one may reproduce it in a number of color combinations. Medium size requires 3 1/2 yards 36-inch material.

Best for Babies

and a boon to nursing mothers

They find this super pure milk a food that is highly nutritious and easily digested by the most delicate stomach with none of the excessive fat found in many milks. It stimulates the milk glands, increases and enriches the flow of mother's milk. This benefits the mother and increases an abundant supply of good nourishment for the baby. It is more nourishing, more digestible and more palatable than any other.

Form the habit of drinking Certified Milk every day as long as you nurse baby. Then continue baby on this same milk and watch it grow.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.

DIET IN CHRONIC AND ACUTE BRIGHT'S DISEASE (Part 2.)

I'll give you a resume of the diet for the acute stage of nephritis. For three or four days there is no food at all allowed. Sometimes even water must be limited. Then, fruit juices and fruit purees for a day or two; then milk and gruels. The diet is increased gradually to normal. Some physicians do advise, four tablespoonfuls of chopped sweet pickles, two cupfuls of shredded cooked fish (use crab meat, lobster, halibut or shrimp), two tablespoonfuls of chili sauce and a seasoning of salt and pepper. Serve on lettuce-lined plates garnishing with strips of pimento and ripe olives.

CHRONIC BRIGHT'S DISEASE
Chronic Bright's disease may last for many years, so obviously we cannot keep this type on a fast or on the very limited diet we do in the acute Bright's disease. Rather, we have to see that all of the body needs for foods are supplied. Because most of the protein wastes of the body are eliminated by the kidneys, we have to be very careful that there is no excess protein in the diet, but, on the other hand, we have to be careful that there is not too little. One of the faults of the older treatment of chronic Bright's disease was that through the fear of protein the diet was kept too low in that food. The consequence was that all of the organs suffered, for the protein they themselves need are made and repaired by the protein element largely. So we have to learn that in our efforts to spare the kidneys we do not injure the other organs.

Naturally in chronic Bright's disease, the kidneys are weakened. We not only have to spare them excess protein, but we have to spare them excess work that would come from eliminating waste products from overeating in general. We have to spare them the irritations which would result from excess salt, vinegar, etc.; the irritation from alcohol and nicotine, and possibly tea and coffee.

We must see that the diet contains a preponderance of alkalizing foods, so starchy foods (except potatoes), sugars, fresh foods, eggs, bread, cereals and prunes, cranberries and plums (they have some benzoic acid which may irritate inflamed conditions), and rhubarb and sorrel (they have a small amount of oxalic acid, but must be taken in moderation, for all of these leave an acid residue in the body). We must be particularly careful about the use of salt, and use it only in the smallest amounts.

Plenty of water should be taken to dilute the normal waste products. Constipation should be avoided by the inclusion of some bran or agar or mineral oil. The skin must be kept active by moderate exercise and by daily warm baths (followed by cool water). If the reaction is good, so that it does its share of eliminating, all other measures for health, such as sleeping in well-aired rooms, being in the open and sunshine as much as possible, adequate sleep and rest have to be practiced. That's all I can think of now, Oh.

Years of beauty enjoyed

Days of labor saved

—in these new pattern floors

Have you seen the new floors on display this week at local furniture and department stores? Don't miss them! They replace worn and shabby wood floors with beauty that is modern—beauty that lasts for years and years.

Interior decorators, architects, and home-lovers everywhere are today replacing old wood floors with these new floors of Armstrong's Inlaid Linoleum

Why?—because the colors and designs bring up-to-date smartness to correctly designed rooms. —because good stores can now lay Armstrong's Linoleum as a permanent floor (cemented over a lining of heavy builders' felt). —because this is the easiest of all floors to keep always clean and new-looking.

Armstrong's Inlaid Linoleum, laid properly, will last for a lifetime. The beautiful patterns go clear through to the tough burlap back. These new floors are waxed like any really fine floor. They take a rich, lustrous polish. They are springy and quiet to walk on—they never need scrubbing.

The next time you go shopping, ask to be shown the many new designs that will make your floors brighter, smarter—as modern as the rest of your home.

Sunshiny floors for summer cottages

The many new designs of Armstrong's Printed Linoleum bring sunshine and cheer to summer cottages, sun porches, kitchens, or wherever the budget does not permit a floor of Armstrong's Inlaid Linoleum. They bring sunshine, too, to the woman who does her own housework. For they are so easy to keep clean. The artistic patterns (printed in heavy oil paints over a long-wearing linoleum base) stay bright and new-looking with very little attention. Before you scrub, paint, or refinish your old wood floors again, ask your merchant to show you Armstrong's Printed Linoleum. The new designs will delight you—the modest prices surprise you.

A new kind of rug for those who rent

If you rent a home, if you are thinking of taking up your fabric rugs for the summer—here's a new, inexpensive way to have bright, artistic floor coverings: Put down the new Armstrong's Linoleum Rugs. They come in the same two grades, inlaid and printed, that have made Armstrong's Linoleum famous for beauty and long wear. "Two minutes' mopping—no scrubbing—CLEAN." Convenient sizes to fit large or small rooms. The illustration at the right shows Armstrong's Printed Linoleum Rug No. 886.

IT WAS THAT KIND OF A PICNIC

Such Was Mrs. Martin Conway's Defense Before Judge to Husband's Charge She Got Drunk; Officers Will Investigate Before Custody is Awarded

"Judge, she got drunk at a picnic," said Martin Conway yesterday to Judge Summerfield.

"Judge, everybody got drunk at that picnic," retorted Mrs. Minnie Conway. "It was that kind of a picnic."

The couple were in court for determination of the custody of their daughter, 5 years of age, pending trial of Mrs. Conway's suit for divorce. To back up his declaration that Mrs. Conway was not fit to look after her offspring, Conway added to the picnic story the assertion that his wife keeps a teakettle full of liquor on the back porch, and is too friendly with Gordon McGuffie, a widower with whom the Conways lived. He said McGuffie gave her flowers and once embraced her.

Mrs. Conway asserted the liquor was in a keg under the bed, and that it was Conway, not her, who denied the embrace, and said she picked the flowers herself. McGuffie testified similarly.

Judge Summerfield adjourned the case a week to permit a probation officer to investigate.

GOLDWYN IS IN CITY WITH YOUNG BRIDE

"Too happy to think about business" was the way Samuel Goldwyn, president of the Goldwyn-Fitzmaurice productions, who arrived over the Santa Fe yesterday afternoon from New York, with his young bride, formerly Frances Howard, who is 41 years of age, married his 21-year-old bride a week ago in New York. He is said to have met her a month ago at a dinner given by Conde Nast, the publisher.

Mr. Goldwyn has been married once before to Blanche Lasky, a sister of Jesse Lasky. They were divorced several years ago.

THIRTEEN YEARS WED; ACCUSED OF BIGAMY

Frederick Richard King, for thirteen solid years the husband of Lillie Belle King, whom he married in Chicago, was charged with bigamy in a complaint issued yesterday by Dep. Dist. Atty. Works. It is charged that King married Margaret R. Conner of 1427 Acacia street on the 2nd inst. without troubling to divorce his first mate.

BANDIT PAIR ROB AND TIE HOUSEWIFE

Gain Entrance by Ruse and Steal $2000 Gems; Bind Victim to Chair

Robbers who gained entrance through a ruse, robbed Mrs. George A. Zorb, 212 North Mariposa avenue, of $2000 in jewelry and money yesterday afternoon, then bound her hand and foot to a chair and left her. Her husband Dr. George Zorb, was formerly a Los Angeles police surgeon.

One of the men appeared at the house first and asked for Dr. Zorb. When told he was not in, he asked if he could leave a note. Mrs. Zorb went in to get paper and pencil, and the man followed her. In a moment another man pushed his way in and each produced a revolver and made Mrs. Zorb conduct them through the house.

They obtained a diamond ring of thirty-two stones, valued at $1500, a gold dinner ring, set with five medium sized and twenty-five smaller diamonds, worth $250; a platinum and diamond wrist watch worth $200 and $25 in cash.

After the robbers had gone Mrs. Zorb, still bound to the chair, managed to acquire one onto the back porch and call for help. Neighbors cut the ropes and notified the Wilshire division police. Both Mrs. Zorb and her husband were able to give an accurate description of either.

Trout Season to Open Next Friday Morn

The 1925 trout and black bass seasons will open on next Friday morning at a half-hour before sunrise and from the hundreds of angling licenses already issued and the vast number of rods and reels inquiring about streams and road conditions, the season should find a record number of sportsmen out on the opening day.

In talk with angling and outdoor authorities at the B. H. Dyer Co., the season should be a good one. A lot of information has been received by Pete Peterson from practically all of the old-time trout streams and lakes in Southern California.

There has been more rain this season than last year or the year before, and the snowfall in the mountains has been heavy. Snow in the mountains means plenty of water for the streams later on in the summer.

One reason given for the big rush of anglers this season is that last year many things came up to keep the anglers at home—drought, hoof-and-mouth disease, and forest fires.

Reports from the Seeps, Ventura, Kern and San Gabriel, all speak well of the trout fishing prospects. For the information of the newcomers here, the trout limit in California is twenty-five a day or fifty a week. All fishermen must have an angler's license, secured at either the Fish and Game Commission in the Pacific Finance Building, E. H. Dyer Co., Tufts-Lyon Co., or Cline-Cline Co.

NEW CLEW IN CLUB SLAYING LOCAL ORATOR SPEAKS FOURTH

Information as to Occupants of Mystery Car Seen Near Slain Woman's Home Expected Today

Information that may lead to disclosure of the identity of two men in a touring car seen near the home of Mrs. Louise Duddl Unterhahr, the night she was clubbed to death near Culver City, is expected by Chief of Police Cain of Culver City today, the officer stated last night.

The presence of the mysterious car near the home of Mrs. Unterhahr on Halm avenue was reported to him yesterday by Sid Chernisse of Los Angeles. Chernisse said he was walking on Halm avenue Tuesday night when he noticed a woman walking up and down the street as if she were waiting for some one.

Chernisse said he walked on down the street about a block when a touring car in which two men were seated stopped. One of the men asked him where Halm avenue was. Chernisse declared Chernisse said he told the man he was not sure, but thought it was in that vicinity. Fearing a hold-up, Chernisse explained, he walked away hurriedly.

TO QUESTION MAN
Chief Cain stated that he will request Chernisse today and expects to obtain a detailed description of the two men.

The car Chernisse reported seeing is believed to be one of the two mysterious machines said to have circled about the Unterhahr home.

Another clew that police said may develop importantly was the finding of Mrs. Unterhahr's gold-studded wrist watch, heretofore considered an important factor in the solution of the case. Information covering the movements of two suspicious automobiles in front of and near the Unterhahr home at 2544 Halm avenue, one on the night of the murder and the other the morning the body was found, two blocks from her home is also regarded as likely to lead to valuable results.

TIMEPIECE FOUND
The timepiece of the slain woman which was given her by an admirer and highly valued, was discovered in a bureau drawer at the Halm-avenue address by Emil O.
Sieber, long-time friend of Mrs. Unterhahr, and Mrs. Ida Matheson, her next-door neighbor, while they were gathering together her personal belongings at the behest of the Public Administrator's office. A certain element of mystery attaches to the discovery, police declare, as the premises had previously been searched very thoroughly.

Of the two mysterious automobiles, one was reported as a taxicab, which is said to have circled about the vicinity of the Unterhahr home for some time early last Wednesday morning, apparently with no definite destination. The hour was said to be about the time the body was discovered.

The other was a touring car said to have been seen by neighbors in front of Mrs. Unterhahr's door Tuesday night. She had previously told neighbors that she expected in automobile to call for her and the identity of the caller has not as yet been ascertained.

Public Administrator Bryson yesterday filed a petition for probate of the will of Mrs. Unterhahr, revealing an estate valued at $15,- 000.

Mrs. Unterhahr's will was dated in Boise, Idaho, January 8, 1914, and at that time her age was given as 40 years. Her husband, from whom she was divorced, is not mentioned in the document. Of the total amount computed at $14,752.75, $12,500 is in real estate and the document asks that the real estate be liquidated for cash so that her testator may be paid in accordance with the terms she sets forth.

She also asked that her body be cremated and the ashes thrown to the winds from a beloved mountain peak in Oberburen, Switzerland.

Her clothing was bequeathed to Mrs. Lena Maxwell of Boise, a friend, her jewelry and other personal effects to a sister and brother, equally, and the balance, which includes her real estate, to her sister, Rosetta Strassman.

Owner of Home and Burglar in Pistol Battle

Ranton Uebel returned to his home at 5454 Blackwell street early yesterday morning to meet a burglar calmly departing by way of the front door. Mr. Uebel was armed. He jerked his gun out and fired as the burglar darted to one side. It was a clean miss. The burglar flashed about and returned the compliment from his own gun.
He also missed. Then he sped down the street, his pace being accelerated by several bullets pumped in his general direction by Mr. Uebel.

A similar experience about the same time in the morning was reported by F. E. Sanford of 1214 Leighton avenue. He had put his key in his door to open it when it swung back and a burglar peered out.

"Come right in," the burglar invited, training his gun on the victim. Instead, the surprised tenant leaped to one side. The burglar fired, but missed, and then darted away. Both homes were thoroughly ransacked, but the extent of the losses has not been ascertained.

SCREEN AUTHOR ADVISES WRITER Newspaper Job Best Training, He Says

Harvey Thew at Work

HARVEY THEW, considered one of the foremost successful screen writers, advises those who would embark on a career to write for the silent drama to get a job in a newspaper office.
Thew says the greatest institution of learning, not excepting a college, is the hustling, bustling newspaper office, where one comes in contact with every phase of life as it really is.

"Journalistic experience is the greatest asset," declared Thew, who has just signed a contract to write for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.
Reginald Denny's greatest successes were from the pen of Thew, and, according to Universal officials, Thew's continuities and

Man Must Pay Wife $12 a Week in Lieu of New Clothes for Easter

(Illustration in Picture Page)
Because the world did not end on Easter, Floyd Brubaker, streetcar conductor, must pay his wife $12 a week, Judge Gates decided yesterday.

Brubaker was so sure the world would end, Mrs. Violette Brubaker told Judge Gates, at alimony hearing yesterday, that he refused to buy her an Easter hat and a dress. That complaint was included in the assertions in her divorce suit filed recently.

Attorney S. S. Hahn, representing Mrs. Brubaker, declared that Brubaker was giving one-tenth of his income to the Full Gospel Assembly of Pomona.

Judge Gates informed Attorney Hahn that the Constitution guaranteed every person the right to worship according to his own ideas and halted him from questioning as to religious matters.

Judge Gates also ordered a receiver appointed to take charge of a player piano, automobile and household furniture owned by Brubaker.

It was noted that Mrs. Brubaker appeared in court wearing a new dress and hat.

TWINS TO BE TRIED
Two Accused of Criminal Assault
Will Face Jury at Same Time

Trial of James M. and John M.
Dasey, twins, on charges of attacking Josephine Price, 2122 Duane street, was set for May 15 yesterday by Judge Keetch of the Superior Court.

The cases against the brothers were consolidated and ordered to go to trial on the same day, after Judge Keetch had denied a motion of the defendants' counsel for a dismissal of the complaints.

The men are arrested to have dragged the girl into an automobile January 25, last, to have taken her to a lonely spot near Silver Lake and there to have attacked her.

CUTTEN ARRAIGNED
Charles R. Cutten was arraigned yesterday before Judge Hardy of the Superior Court on a statutory charge involving Vada Gould of Long Beach. He will enter a plea Thursday. It is charged that Cut-ten forced his way into the girl's apartment and made an unsuccessful attempt to attack her.

...This is the confidence and security

...plan will bring to you.

Another point—and this is very important. The easy payment plan does not permit partial withdrawals. If at any time you need what you have saved you may withdraw all with interest earned. If you cannot continue your payments you may leave what you have saved in the bank to earn 4 per cent compound interest, or you may withdraw all. But—you will hesitate a long time about drawing all that you have saved unless absolutely necessary. So unless a real emergency comes your account will continue to grow without the "put and take" which ruins so many savings accounts.

Already more than ten thousand persons have started this plan with the Hal-man Bank. Thousands of them who have never been able to save before will in a few months have $1000 cash and the habit which will lead them to thousands more. Probably very few of them have larger incomes or greater opportunities than you have, but—in a few years they will have larger incomes and greater opportunities than you—unless you join them!

ORPHEUM DANCIFUL MOSCONI TOP BILL WITH EXCENTRIC FOOTWORK

By Grace Kingsley
The question as to whether one can have too much of a good thing or not has, I believe, never been settled. If you like singing and dancing very much indeed, you need look no further than the Orpheum.

It's a clean bill, too—hardly a bit that needs laundering. As the Australian young man with me put it—those Mosconi Brothers and Sister Vera. Bonus means something very nice in Australian slang, you know. I didn't suppose there were any more steps possible in the eccentric line, but the Mosconis showed me where I was wrong. Their quartet, dust and solo stepping beats anything of the sort seen here.

"She gives you a good spin for your money," said one of the audience. That's how enthusiastic my Australian friend was over Margaret Young. That was the first time praise from an Australian. Miss Young's coon songs are a real characteristic of the Australian. That's why they're so popular. They're lady with a bubbling low good nature in addition to her cleverness.

Pitting knughtly into one of the headline spots are Charles Olcott and Polly Ann, who haven't moved out of their old act and into a new one for several seasons, but who are more welcome than a lot of actors with new stunts. Olcott's telephone turn, in which he calls up a varied assortment of girls, is a gem from one end to the other, and the pair's song, written by Olcott, is good. This couple is a dinkum pair, according to my Australian. That's about the best there is in Australia.

Paul Morton and Naomi Glass always manage to fetch along something new, and their wisdom is a gem from one end to the other. "I believe," says Morton, "that girl had a revolver in her hope chest."
"I couldn't see a wink last night on account of the window shade being up." "Why didn't you pull it down?" "I couldn't reach clear across the street." The pair's dancing as usual is in the hit class.

If you miss the opening act, you cheat yourself. Alfred Latteil is perhaps the funniest animal impersonator in the world. With the aid of a ki-yi make-up, he plays Bonzo the pup, and pages the laughs to hilarious results.

Something new in the grandpa-line is played by Ben Price in the team of Price and Ryan, and besides a good line of sidewalk chatter, they manage some fine harmony, with comic stepping.

Walter Davidson's jazz break-forth into song often than do most jazz bands. They strive for some novel comedy, but their trotting and scraping remains the best thing they do.

Patricia Harrold and her daughter
Patti remain over for another hit.

Coddling Advise
by Marie Wells
Anent Husbands

"No man can suffer too much," says vivacious Marie Wells, in speaking of her play husband in "No, No, Nanette," the wildlife hit of Louis O. Maclean and Edward D. Smith, now playing at the Mason. But off stage, Miss Wells is a bit more tolerant. She has ideas plenty of a woman's regarding men, and in a talkative mood the other day she explained a few of them.

"There's a lot of talk about the country now on the so-called 'petticoat rule.' Men are grabbing because the wives particularly try to dominate the home. And why shouldn't she? If a man gets tired of a woman he can just leave her. He has his career and his money, but there are very few women who are financially independent. They have to see that they get their own way in most things, or in a staff capacity, has

INTRIGUE LACKING
"Three Keys," at California, Falls to Match Title

There is a slight amount of mystery and romance in "Three Keys," now showing at the California Theater, but not enough to justify a title which suggests locked doors, intrigue and sophistication. Three women figure so much more promi-nently than three keys that one wonders just how that wayward little title wandered on the scene.
A hero who munches pepperoni and a friend who proceeds dangerously near the yawning doors of a jail, all in the gentle spirit of fun, awaken interest to a moderate degree, but the story that all-important plot of suspense enter into the plot.

There is nothing objectionable and there is plenty that is amusing.
The story is a little backbone of a plot is sadly missing. It deals with a safety-deposit box in which three keys are kept, and to which there are three keys, which are inserted by various people, all after that valuable stock.

The love interest is as lightly dwell upon as the business of intrigue, and the various mishaps, broken engagements and temping mysteries seldom arouse more than a slight amount of interest.

However, Jack Mulhall appears in his best months. He is really amazingly funny as he goes about chewing candy and falling in love. Another fortunate thing for Mr. Mulhall is that the subtitles provided for him are clever and add a suggestion of dash which is very becoming.

Gaston Glass, taking the part of the friend and fellow-conspirator, intent on keeping beyond of jail, is funny to a degree, and as the beautiful Spanish girl whose past is a mild mystery Edith Roberts appears attractively.

The two other women in the story are Miss Dupont as the fantasy, and Virginia Lee Corbin as the turbulent little sister. Miss Corbin's full-blown bloneness is downright to the end, and her her post fully enforces on Miss Murray's famous reputation for that facial expression.

Charles Henry Stuart, Holmes and Joseph Girard are also in the picture. A two-reel comedy entitled "The House of the Living Hills," adds considerably to the entertainment, while the California chapters have several good numbers.

AND IT CAME TO PASS
A visitor, poking around among the ruins of tornado-wrecked De Soto, Ill., saw an open Bible face down upon a pedestal. Picking it up he found it opened on the thirteenth chapter of Mark, which begins with these words: "And as he went out of the temple one of his disciples saith unto him: 'Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here.' And he answering said unto him: 'Seest thou these great buildings? There-shall not be left one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down.'"

PARIS REVUE UNIQUE

Hillstreet Headliner Rare Program of Varied Numbers

Clever? Yes, indeed. Very French? Perhaps. At any rate, this week's headliner at the Hill-street Theater, the Paris Revue, is an unusual combination, even in the way of revues, artistically staged, with several clever dancers in the cast.

The revue is staged in five scenes, opening with a sketch in French, after the manner of the theater of the old time, according to the self-confessed comedian of the company, who kindly explains matters before acts a really fairly-like, romantic episode. A sophisticated little number about park benches and davenport and a hilarious finale are included.

Not featured, the Griffin Twins come in for a large share of the applause, though unfavorably placed on the program. These two girls, with their red hair stage setting, did some highly pleasing dancing and pantomime.
Princeton and Watson, during their rather unintelligible "brillcracking" sketch offered some remarks which brought down the house.

Coscia and Verdi, violinists, who are truly capable musicians when performing and even when they are being funny, were well received.
One of those men is a natural comedian, as well as an accompanist, and a very clever violinist.
The other is a well-dressed particularist well done.

Blossom Seelye, whose husky,
"Way down South" accents have been imitated by so many other blond youngsters, has another discipline in French Arms. Another of those who care for that brand of syncopation, Miss Arms will be a favorite.

Emil Boreo admits that he is just over from France and employs a decided accent to emphasize the fact. But he sings in various languages, with his "Wooden Soldiers" and Gallagher and Shea numbers particularly well done.

"The Scarlet Honeycomb," in spite of its impossible title, is all interesting and well-directed photoplay. Though Shirley Mason and J. Farrell MacDonald are featured, the picture is creditable.

Pierre Gendron, as the young Latin, quite steals the picture, while Mayne Geary, as the girl, gives a disservice performance.

Boland Formerly Leading Woman for John Drew

For more than six years Mary Boland, star of that great force comedy, "Meet the Wife," at the Orange Grove Theater, was leading woman for John Drew, noted actor.

Miss Boland was last seen with him in Los Angeles in "Jack Straw" and in a play called "Smith."

Her motion-picture experience is limited to two pictures, for she prefers the stage. In a screen play, entitled "Stepping Stone," Miss Boland had the leading feminine part with Frank Keenan and also appeared in a play by Willard Mack.

Miss Boland's outstanding New York successes include "My Ladies Dress," Charles Frohman's production, "The Case of Lady Camber" and George Kelly's play,
"The Torch Bearer."

"Meet the Wife" ran for more than eighteen months in New York City. Miss Boland created the leading role and was starred during its entire run.

Wyndham Standing and Richard Tucker head the long list of players in "Meet the Wife," which will be shown at the Orange Grove this week.

panies in a staff capacity, has been

SAUNDERS SELECTED FOR 'FAINT PERFUME'

Jackie Saunders
Jackie Saunders used to play star parts in the Balboa picture she left them for the vaudeville stage, a couple of years ago, but is back in the film now.

When B. P. Schulberg was looking about for somebody to play an important although abbreviated part in "Faint Perfume," he knew it known that he wouldn't have anybody except a star in the part, a real player who knew her business.
After testing some fifty players, he chose Miss Saunders for the role.

Hans Krasly is working on the continuity of "The Twin Sister," a First National picture in which Constance Talmadge will be starred, and production is slated to get under way in about three weeks. Sidney Franklin, who will direct, has been very ill, but is reversing rapidly, and it is unlikely that production will be delayed on his account.

First National announces the purchase of the screen rights to "A Husband for George Ann," a short story by Hazel Christie Mac-DONALD, which the Saturday Evening Post published February 7.

First National has contracted with C. C. Burr for a series of Johnny Hines productions. These productions, the names of which have not yet been divulged, are to be included in First National's winner group of releases for the coming season.

Logical Extension of Rural Measure May Pass

TURNED TO CITY

A property owner may possess as many as five houses, one for himself and family, and the other four may be occupied by his "relatives." In other words, John Doe owns a house, and he may also own four others but they must be tenanted by his brother, his uncle, his sister or some other relative. If the foregoing is not so, then John Doe can have but one house, and any others would be subject to disposal under the terms of the proposed bill.

In this connection it is worthy of remembrance that some fifty cases, involving rural properties owned by Americans have come to the notice of the United States Embassy and on which in many cases diplomatic representation has been made. From $12,000,000 to $15,000,000 worth of real estate is owned by American in Mexico.

Our files are crammed with testimonials from men and women in every walk of life, who state gratefully that Tanlac has brought them back to vigorous strength.

CLUBS HEAR OF HOSPITAL NEED

Speakers Report City Can Use 3000 More Beds

Workers Are Sought for Combined Campaign

Lack of Space for Women is Especially Stressed

Speakers representing the non-profit hospital campaign carried to three large gatherings in Los Angeles yesterday the story of the city's serious shortage in hospitalization, and of the effort that is being made under the direction of the non-profit hospital campaign committee to raise a fund of $2,500,000 with which to build two new hospitals—the Woman's Hospital of Los Angeles and the Clara Barton Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. O. P. Clark, head of the women's division of the combined appeal, told the Women's City Club at its forenoon meeting at 949 South Figueroa street of the women's part in this great project and called for volunteers to report to the organization headquarters at 617 South Olive street.

Dr. R. E. Skeel outlined the acute lack of hospital accommodations existing in Los Angeles and stressed the vital need of at least 3000 more non-municipal beds to accommodate the city sick. He showed that more than two-thirds of the sick here are women and the shortage of hospitalization affects them more than it does the men.

In the afternoon, Dr. Irving Bancroft spoke to the Los Angeles Teachers' Club at the Trinity Auditorium Building. J. H. Dockweiler spoke to the Municipal League in the evening at 6 o'clock, giving figures to show the lack of hospital accommodations here to house the Today's schedule of hospital speakers includes: 11:15 a.m. Mr. Foster K. Collins to broadcast hospital appeal from Broadway Department Store on National Child Week program, 2:15 p.m. Attorney Frank C. Shosetter and Dr. R. E. Skeel to speak before the Cosmos Club, 1719 Figueroa street.

Uniformed Men Escort Body of Barry to Grave

Capt. William Barry, thirty-eight years a member of the Los Angeles fire department, was buried in Calvary Cemetery yesterday with impressive services. One hundred and fifty uniformed firemen escorted the body from the home, 1145 El Molino street, to St. Thomas Catholic Church, where services were conducted by Father John Gallagher. Among the many beautiful floral pieces were three from the Los Angeles fire department.

The pallbearers, six members of the department, were Battalion Chief Charles J. Howley, George Kelley, Capt. Samuel A. Lennon, Adrain T. Moriarty, Harry E. Teasle and Arthur M. Dominguez. Capt. Barry, who was 44 years of age, died Friday after a brief illness. He was retired on a pension last year from his command of Engine Company No. 13, Pico Heights district.

BUSY IN CANADA

That the Soviet is not idle in Canada is indicated by the fact that A. E. Smith, formerly a Methodist minister, now a Communist, was elected president of the Ontario section of the Canadian Labor party recently, defeating the union labor candidate by two votes. The Communists also obtained control of the executive committee and elected their candidate for vice-president.

The delegates to the convention adopted resolutions introduced by the Communists providing that the delegates to the meeting of the Empire labor parties, to be held in London, be instructed to move that the sentimental and the colonial portions of the British Empire have complete independence.

Of course what the Communists really want is that the colonies have complete independence from Great Britain and complete dependence on Soviet Russia. [National Republic.]

She's New Pilot of Women's Club

Following six weeks of intensive campaigning Mrs. Anderson was yesterday chosen to guide the destinies of the Women's City Club for the ensuing year. Her victory was not entirely one-sided as the successful candidate failed to carry her entire ticket into office.

CLUBWOMEN ELECT OFFICERS

Mrs. Anderson Chosen President of Women's City Club But Fails to Carry Entire Ticket

BY MYRA NYE

Mrs. J. T. Anderson was yesterday chosen president of the Women's City Club in a hotly contested election, the climax of a campaign extending over six weeks and in a less marked way the entire club season.

Candidates for the presidency were named by eleven different groups as early as last October. Mrs. Anderson, now second vice-president, succeeds Mrs. E. C. Bellows, who was elected to the directorate. Mrs. Bellows was one of four chosen from eleven candidates.

While Mrs. Anderson won over her opponent, Mrs. S. L. Wiley, now first vice-president, she did not carry her entire ticket with her. Dr. Jessie A. Russell was elected first vice-president, her opponent being Mrs. R. T. Train on the Anderson ticket; Mrs. Homer U. Prather on the Wiley ticket outdistanced Mrs. Alice Simmons Wheeler for second vice-president. Mrs. P. V. Davis won over Dr. Laura M. Locke for secretaryship, the latter being on the Wiley ticket. Mrs. R. M. Crawford was the only candidate for treasurer.

In addition to Mrs. E. C. Bellows, directors chosen were Mrs. M. Adams, Mrs. Myrtle Masters and Mrs. John S. Myers. Excitement of the election which was manifest outside of the auditorium did not influence the regular session at which Miles Gregory spoke in behalf of his own candidacy for Mayor of Los Angeles and Miss Clara Schechter, candidate for the Board of Education, speaking on "The Parent, the Child and the Teacher."

HELD IN SUICIDE EFFORT

Walter Dix, a laborer, was placed under observation in the psychiatric ward of the General Hospital yesterday after he made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide according to police, by slashing his wrists with a safety razor blade. According to a report by Deputy Sheriff Sweeney and Modie, Dix came here recently from Klamath Falls, Or.

Use 'em for Wall Paper

Owners of the old German marks can now exchange them at the rate of 1,000,000,000,000 for the new reichsmark or gold mark. But that wouldn't pay for the freight and drayage of sending them in. [Capper's Weekly.]
